FROM THE

SUPPLEMENT

TO THE

LONDON GAZETTE of FEBRUARY 3, 1835.

India Board, February 3, 1835.

A DISPATCH has been received from the Right Honourable Lord William Bentinck, Governor General and Commander in Chief in India, dated 22d May 1834, of which, and of its enclosure, the following are copies:

SIR, Ootacamund, May 22, 1834.

I HAVE the honour to enclose, for the information of the Honourable the Court of Directors, copy of my General Order to the army on the close of the Coorg war; and to request that the distinguished and gallant manner in which Colonel Foulis conducted the operations of the column under his command, may be brought to the particular notice of His Majesty's Government.

I have the honour to be, &c.

(Signed) W. BENTINCK, General Commander in Chief, East Indies.

Henry St. George Tucker, Esq. Chairman to the Honourable the Court of Directors.

Head Quarters, Ootacamund, May 17, 1834.

THE Governor General and Commander in Chief has much pleasure in expressing to Brigadier Lindesay, C. B. his entire approbation of the manner in which the military operations under his general control against the Rajah of Coorg,* have been brought to a speedy and successful termination. His Lordship had confidently anticipated this result, from the Brigadier's long experience and established reputation.

To Lieutenant-Colonel Steuart, who commanded a detachment from the main column, under Brigadier Lindesay, the expression of his Lordship's satisfaction is also due, for having successfully overcome all the obstacles opposed by the enemy to his progress, and for having effected, in obedience to his orders, a junction with the column under Colonel Foulis' command.

The column under the command of Colonel Waugh met with complete failure; the loss of many brave men is to be deplored, and of none more than of the gallant Lieutenant-Colonel Mill.

The determined valour displayed by the Officers and troops, and more especially by His Majesty's 55th, is the best consolation for this misfortune. His Lordship has carefully examined the detailed reports which he had required of the operations of this column, and is happy in generally concurring in the opinion of Brigadier Lindesay, that Colonel Waugh is not justly chargeable with blame; that all his orders and arrangements appear to have been made with sound discretion, and a due observance of correct military principles; and that the disaster may be ascribed to the extreme difficulty of the country, and to those accidents to which the best concerted schemes will occasionally be liable.

It may perhaps be regretted that the attack was so long persevered in, but the good order in which the retreat was made to the ground occupied before the attack, proves that the arrangements were ably made, while the perseverance in which the main object of the operations of this column was followed up reflects the greatest credit upon Colonel Waugh.

The good disposition made by Colonel Foulis, in command of the south western column, for the attack of the Huggula Ghaut, and the gallantry with which it was carried, reflect the greatest credit upon that Officer, and the Officers and men under his command: Colonel Foulis' name will be brought to the particular notice of the Honourable Court.

To all the Officers and men composing the several columns above enumerated his Lordship expresses his thanks for their zealous and gallant conduct; although the troops have had to engage an enemy much inferior to themselves, yet the excessive strength of the mountains and densely jungle country constituted a resistance which the greatest perseverance and courage could alone have surmounted. The army have the satisfaction of knowing that a sanguinary tyrant has been subdued, and a valuable acquisition been made to the Company's territories. To the excellent order and discipline of the troops may in part be ascribed the general desire expressed by the inhabitants to become the subjects of the British Government.

The conduct of Lieutenant-Colonel Jackson, in command of the north western auxiliary column, being under investigation his Lordship refrains, for the

the present, from making any remarks upon the operations of that part of the force.

The Governor General cannot omit to mention, in this place, the eminent services of Lieutenant-Colonel I. S. Fraser, to whom was entrusted the conduct of our negotiations with the enemy. By the judicious arrangements which that Officer adopted the successes of the troops were ably seconded, while his subsequent measures in administering the affairs of the Coorg country have been so discreet and conciliatory as to gain for him the confidence of the inhabitants, and to secure their entire and willing obedience.

By command of His Excellency the Right Honourable the Governor General.

(Signed) W. H. MACNAGHTEN,
Secretary to the Governor General.

Major-General and Acting Military Secretary.

The Prelate then signified to the Chapter, the Sovereign's royal will and pleasure, that the vacant stall in the Royal Chapel of St. George at Windsor be filled.

FROM THE

LONDON GAZETTE of FEBRUARY 27, 1835.

St. James's-Palace, February 24, 1835.

THIS day His Majesty proceeded in state from St. James's-Palace to the House of Peers, where he arrived about two o'clock; and was received, on alighting from his state coach, by the Lord Chancellor, the Lord President of the Council, the Lord Privy Seal, the Deputy Lord Great Chamberlain, the Earl Marshal, the Lord Steward of the Household, the Duke of Wellington, Clarenceux King of Arms, in the absence of Garter, and Black Rod, and proceeded to the robing-room in the customary manner.

His Majesty was there robed, and having put on the imperial crown, the procession moved into the House in the usual order;—the sword of state was borne by the Duke of Wellington, and the cap of maintenance by the Marquess of Winchester.

His Majesty being seated upon the Throne, the Great Officers of State and others standing on the right and left, Sir Augustus Clifford, Knt. the Gentleman Usher of the Black Rod, was sent with a message from His Majesty to the House of Commons, commanding their attendance in the House of Peers. The Commons being come thither accordingly, His Majesty was pleased to deliver the following most gracious Speech to both Houses of Parliament:

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

I AVAIL Myself of the earliest opportunity of meeting you in Parliament, after having recurred to the sense of My people.

You will, I am confident, fully participate in the regret which I feel at the destruction, by accidental fire, of that part of the ancient palace of Westminster which has been long appropriated to the use of the two houses of Parliament.

Upon the occurrence of this calamity, I gave immediate directions that the best provision of which the circumstances of the case would admit should be made for your present meeting, and it will be My wish to adopt such plans for your permanent accommodation as shall be deemed, on your joint consideration, to be the most fitting and convenient.

I will give directions that there be laid before you the report made to Me by the Privy Council in reference to the origin of the fire, and the evidence upon which that report was founded.

The assurances which I receive from My Allies, and generally from all Foreign Princes and States, of their earnest desire to cultivate the relations of amity, and to maintain with Me the most friendly understanding, justify, on My part, the confident expectation of the continuance of the blessings of peace.

The single exception to the general tranquillity of Europe is the civil contest which still prevails in some of the northern provinces of Spain.

I will give directions that there be laid before you articles, which I have concluded with My Allies, the King of the French, the Queen Regent of Spain, and the Queen of Portugal, which are supplementary to the Treaty of April 1834, and are intended to facilitate the complete attainment of the objects contemplated by that Treaty.

I have

I have to repeat the expression of My regret that the relations between Holland and Belgium still remain unsettled.

Gentlemen of the House of Commons,

I have directed the estimates for the ensuing year to be prepared, and to be laid before you without delay.

They have been framed with the strictest attention to economy; and I have the satisfaction of acquainting you that the total amount of the demands for the public service will be less on the present than it has been on any former occasion within our recent experience.

The satisfactory state of the trade and commerce of the country, and of the public revenue, fully justifies the expectation that, notwithstanding the reductions in taxation which were made in the last session, and which, when they shall have taken full effect, will tend to diminish the existing surplus of the public revenue, there will remain a sufficient balance to meet the additional annual charge which will arise from providing the compensation granted by Parliament on account of the abolition of slavery throughout the British dominions.

I deeply lament that the agricultural interest continues in a state of great depression.

I recommend to your consideration whether it may not be in your power, after providing for the exigencies of the public service, and, consistently with the steadfast maintenance of the public credit, to devise a method for mitigating the pressure of those local charges which bear heavily on the owners and occupiers of land, and for distributing the burden of them more equally over other descriptions of property.

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

The information received from the Governors of My Colonies, together with the Acts passed in execution of the law for the abolition of slavery, will be communicated to you.

It is with much satisfaction that I have observed the general concurrence of the Colonial Legislatures in giving effect to this important measure; and, notwithstanding the difficulties with which the subject is necessarily attended, I have seen no reason to abate My earnest hopes of a favourable issue.

Under all circumstances you may be assured of My anxious desire, and unceasing efforts. fully to realise the benevolent intentions of Parliament.

There are many important subjects, some of which have already undergone partial discussion in Parliament, the adjustment of which, at as early a period as is consistent with the mature consideration of them, would be of great advantage to the public interests.

Among the first in point of urgency is the state of the tithe question in Ireland, and the means of effecting an equitable and final adjustment of it.

Measures will be proposed for your consideration, which will have for their respective objects, to promote the commutation of tithe in England and Wales, to improve our civil jurisprudence and the administration of justice in ecclesiastical causes, to make provision for the more effectual maintenance of ecclesiastical discipline, and to relieve those who dissent from the doctrines or discipline of the church from the necessity of celebrating the ceremony of marriage according to its rites.

I have not yet received the report from the Commissioners appointed to enquire into the state of municipal corporations, but I have reason to believe that that it will be made, and that I shall be enabled to communicate it to you, at an early period.

I have appointed a Commission for considering the state of the several dioceses in England and Wales, with reference to the amount of their revenues and to the more equal distribution of episcopal duties; the state of the several cathedrals and collegiate churches, with a view to the suggestion of such measures as may render them most conducive to the efficiency of the Established Church; and for devising the best mode of providing for the cure of souls, with reference to the residence of the Clergy on their respective Benefices.

The especial object which I have in view in the appointment of this Commission, is to extend more widely the means of religious worship according to the doctrines of the Established Church, and to confirm its hold upon the veneration and affections of My people.

I feel it also incumbent upon Me to call your earnest attention to the condition of the Church of Scotland, and to the means by which it may be enabled to encrease the opportunities of religious worship for the poorer classes of society in that part of the United Kingdom.

It has been my duty, on this occasion, to direct your consideration to various important matters connected with our domestic policy.

I rely with entire confidence on your willing co-operation in perfecting all such measures as may be calculated to remove just causes of complaint, and to promote the concord and happiness of My subjects.

I rely also with equal confidence, on the caution and circumspection with which you will apply yourselves to the alteration of laws, which affect very extensive and complicated interests, and are interwoven with ancient usages, to which the habits and feelings of My people have conformed.

I feel

I feel assured that it will be our common object, in supplying that which may be defective, or in renovating that which may be impaired, to strengthen the foundations of those institutions in Church and State which are the inheritance and birthright of My people, and which, amidst all the vicissitudes of public affairs, have proved, under the blessing of Almighty God, the truest guarantees of their liberties, their rights, and their religion.

WILTON, Lord Steward.

Foreign-Office, February 27, 1835.

It has been notified by the Minister Plenipotentiary of Her Catholick Majesty to His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, in a communication dated the 24th instant, that the permission which, in virtue of a Royal Order of Her Majesty the Queen Regent of Spain, dated at Madrid, the 11th of December 1834, had been granted to Spanish vessels, to enter the ports of Corunna, Gijon, Santander, and Bilboa (notwithstanding the blockade of the coast of the north of Spain, from Cape Finisterre to the Bidassoa, declared in the Royal Order of the 16th of September preceding), had, by another Royal Order, dated at Madrid, the 11th of February 1835, been extended to the vessels of His Majesty's subjects, under the conditions prescribed in the before-mentioned Royal Order of the 11th of December 1834, of which the following is a translation:

(Translation.)

TO THE SECRETARY OF STATE.

Madrid, December 11, 1834.

A representation from the "Procuradores" of the province of Biscay having been taken into consideration in a sitting of the Council of Ministers, in which the Procuradores state, that, in consequence of the declaration of the blockade of the coast of Cantabria, many Spanish vessels are detained in England, on account of the Consuls refusing to furnish them with the proper papers in order that they may proceed to the ports of that coast, to the serious detriment of that commerce in general, since, although the cause which gave rise to the declaration of the blockade unfortunately still subsists, it would appear that no inconvenience could arise from continuing the commerce in goods of lawful trade, under certain regulations and restrictions:—the Council, having attentively considered this subject, and being desirous to conciliate the interests of commerce with the attention due to the blockade of that coast, as one of the measures most efficacious in favour of the cause of the Queen, our Mistress, has determined what follows:—

1st. Her Majesty's Consul in London and his Delegates, Vice-Consuls, or Consular Agents in the ports of Great Britain, shall furnish papers, in the usual manner, to all Spanish vessels which may be bound, in due form, for the ports of Corunna, Gijon, Santander, and Bilboa; to which ports alone, and to no others of those comprehended in the blockade this favour is granted.

2dly. The captains or consignees of the said vessels shall lay before the Consuls, Vice-Consuls, or their

their Agents, a list of the bales, packages, &c. with a general statement of their contents, comprised in the register of their whole cargo, which must consist only of goods of lawful trade, and in no way and under no pretext whatsoever of those called contraband of war, which are designated in the twenty-fourth article of the " Ordenanza del Corso ; excepting rigging and canvass, which are exempted from this rule for the present, and so long as the rebels are not in possession of any vessel of any description, nor of any maritime port.

3dly. The Consuls, Vice Consuls, or their Agents shall transmit to the administrators of Customs, or to the judges of contraband in any of the above-mentioned ports to which this favour has been granted, and to which the vessels may be bound, a general list of their cargoes, in order that they may be examined and searched, for the purpose of ascertaining whether they convey any article not mentioned in that list ; the military chiefs in the aforesaid ports, whether of the army or of the navy, or the persons by them appointed, are authorised to be present at the examination of those vessels, notwithstanding that they may have been already searched at sea by any Spanish man of war, with the like object of ascertaining whether they carried on board any of the goods above cited as contraband of war ; these extraordinary measures shall cease, de facto, whenever the blockade shall be raised.

4thly. As long as these restrictions shall continue in force, and in order to prevent all Spanish vessels from approaching or entering any port or ports, occupied by the enemies of the Queen, our Mistress, the captains, supercargoes, or consignees of the said vessels shall give, before the Spanish Consuls, Vice-Consuls, or their Agents, who may have furnished them with the papers necessary to their voyage, and as a guarantee that they do not carry any warlike stores, a security which shall not be under 60,000 rials, nor above 100,000 rials; which I communicate to your Excellency. (Signed)

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the third and fourth year of His Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to regulate the trade of the British "possessions abroad," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that no goods shall be imported into, nor shall any goods, except the produce of the fisheries in British ships, be exported from, any of the British possessions in America by sea, from or to any place other than the United Kingdom, or some other of such possessions, except into or from the several ports in such possessions called free ports, enumerated or described in the table therein contained; and it is thereby, amongst other things, provided, that if His Majesty shall deem it expedient to extend the provisions of the said Act to any port or ports not enumerated in the said table, it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by Order in Council, to extend the provisions of the said Act to such port or ports; and that from and after the day mentioned in such Order in Council all the privileges and advantages of the said Act, and all the provisions, penalties, and

forfeitures therein contained, subject nevertheless to the limitations and restrictions thereinafter provided, shall extend, and be deemed and construed to extend, to any such port or ports respectively, as fully as if the same had been inserted and enumerated in the said table at the time of passing the said Act; and after reciting that there are in the said possessions many places situated in rivers and in bays at which it may be necessary to establish ports for particular and limited purposes only, it is further enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty in any Order in Council made for the appointment of any free port to limit and confine such appointments respectively to any and such purposes only as shall be expressed in such Order:

And whereas His Majesty doth deem it expedient to extend the provisions of the said Act for such purposes as are after mentioned, to the port of Majaquadavie, in the province of North Brunswick; now, therefore, in pursuance of the said Act of Parliament, and in exercise of the powers thereby in His Majesty in Council in that behalf vested, His Majesty doth, with the advice of His Privy Council, order, and it is hereby ordered, that from and after the first day of June next all the privileges and advantages of the said Act, and all the provisions, penalties, and forfeitures therein contained, subject nevertheless to the limitations and restrictions hereinafter provided, shall extend, and be deemed and construed to extend, to the said port of Majaquadavie, as fully as if the said port had been inserted and enumerated in the said table at the time of passing the said Act; provided, nevertheless, that the said port of Majaquadavie shall be a free port under the said Act for the single purpose of importing from the United States of America articles for the use and consumption of His Majesty's subjects and others inhabiting the said port, and for no other purpose:

And

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

C. C. Greville.

Foreign-Office, March 11, 1835.

A Royal Order of Her Majesty the Queen Regent of Spain, of which the following is a translation, has been communicated by the Minister Plenipotentiary of Her Catholick Majesty to His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, in a note dated the 6th instant:

(Translation.)

To the Secretaries of the Departments of Finance and of the Navy.

Most Excellent Sirs,

Her Majesty the Queen Regent, animated by Her constant desire to afford every possible facility and freedom to national and foreign commerce that may be compatible with the paramount object of the defence of the kingdom, has been pleased to resolve, upon the advice of the Council of Ministers, that the ships of Spain, as well as those of friendly and Allied Powers, which may arrive with cargoes of goods of lawful commerce in the four ports excepted from the general blockade of the northern coasts, and specified in the Royal Order of the 11th December last, shall be exempted from leaving the deposit or bond required by the said Royal Order, provided, nevertheless, that on approaching our coasts within the distance of six miles laid down by the maritime law, and on casting anchor in our ports, the said ships do observe the forms and attend to all the regulations required by the laws and

and ordinances for preventing the smuggling of contraband of war, so prejudicial under the circumstances in which the nation is placed.

I communicate this to your Excellency by Royal Order, that you may cause the necessary orders to be issued by the Department under your direction to the proper authorities.

God preserve your Excellency many years.

(Signed) Francisco Martinez de la Rosa.

Madrid, February 17, 1835.

St. James's-Palace, March 11, 1835.

This day the Archbishop of Canterbury and Bishops, with the Prolocutor and Members of the Lower House of Convocation of the Clergy of the province of Canterbury, waited upon His Majesty to present the following Address; which was received by His Majesty upon the Throne:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful subjects, the Archbishop, Bishops, and Clergy of the province of Canterbury, in Convocation assembled, beg leave most respectfully to offer the sincere and humble expression of our loyal and affectionate attachment to your Majesty's throne and person.

We acknowledge with peculiar thankfulness the many instances of condescension and kindness which we have received from your Majesty, and the repeated assurances of your Majesty's fixed resolution to protect and uphold the Church. At this particular juncture, when the Church is assailed with unceasing hostility, when its Ministers are reviled and calumniated, its revenues invidiously exaggerated, and and its very existence denounced as pernicious to the interests of Religion, it is hardly possible to calculate the benefit which our venerable Establishment has derived from the firmness and fortitude evinced by your Majesty in its defence.

Being conscious that we have nothing to fear from the fullest investigation of the truth, and sincerely desiring the removal of every obstacle to the success of our sacred ministrations, we feel ourselves deeply indebted to your Majesty for having directed the attention of your Government to the concerns of the Church, for the purpose of ascertaining its real condition, and of applying remedial measures wherever they may be found necessary.

We rejoiced in the enquiry which was instituted by command of your Majesty into the amount of ecclesiastical revenues, anticipating, what has in fact resulted from it, an authoritative contradiction of the statements so assiduously circulated of the enormous wealth of the Clergy.

With still greater satisfaction we view the recent appointment by your Majesty, of a Commission empowered to take into consideration the state of the Church, and to suggest such measures as may repair any decays and supply any imperfections in our ecclesiastical system, and call into action all its energies.

Aware of the vast importance of this undertaking, yet not insensible to its difficulties, we cheerfully proffer to your Majesty the assurance of our zealous co-operation in carrying it, under the Divine blessing, to a happy conclusion. Most anxiously do we desire, that means may be found of making the resources of the Church available, in the highest possible degree, to the purposes of religious instruction, due care being taken to secure the continuance of that which has ever been its characteristic distinction, the maintenance of a learned and pious clergy, qualified to be the defenders of our holy re-religion, and the opponents of erroneous doctrine, as well as the guides and counsellors of the people committed to their charge.

In any event we may venture to promise, that the clergy, as a body, will not be found wanting in the discharge of their duties as the ministers of peace and the teachers of godliness.

By such a course of proceeding we shall best shew forth our sense of your Majesty's paternal goodness, and strengthen our hope of acceptance when we offer up our prayers, in the name of the Lord Jesus, for the honour and happiness of your Majesty, for the welfare of all our fellow subjects, for the peace and prosperity of the realm, and for the perpetuity of our happy Constitution in Church and State.

To which Address His Majesty was pleased to return the following most gracious Answer:

"I cordially thank you for this loyal and dutiful Address.

"I derive great satisfaction from the assurance which you have given me, of your zealous co-operation in the measures which I have directed with a view to the improvement of our ecclesiastical system.

"Firmly determined to uphold and to protect the Established Church, my efforts will ever be directed to maintain its rights and privileges, and to extend its influence.

"I rely with confidence upon the continuance of your exertions in the discharge of the sacred duties confided to you, which, as they have eminently contributed to the advancement of true religion, will, I trust, under the blessing of Almighty God, ensure the permanent happiness and welfare of my people."

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fifty-seventh year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, c. 57, intituled "An Act to "empower His Majesty to suspend the training, and "regulate the quotas, of the militia," it is enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by any Order or Orders in Council, to suspend the calling out of the militia of the United Kingdom, or of any part of the United Kingdom, or of any county, riding, shire, stewartry, city, town, or place, for the purpose of being trained and exercised in any year, and to order and direct that no training or exercising of the militia of the United Kingdom, or of any part of the United Kingdom, or of any county or counties, riding or ridings, shire or shires, stewartry or stewartries, city or cities, town or towns, or place or places, specified in any such Order or Orders in Council, shall take place in any year, any thing contained in any Act or Acts of Parliament relating to the militia to the contrary notwithstanding: and whereas it is deemed expedient, that such training and exercising should be dispensed with

Wm. L. Bathurst.

At the Court at St. James's, the 18th day of February 1835,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by a certain Act of Parliament, passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of His present Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for the abolition of slavery "throughout the British colonies; for promoting the "industry of the manumitted slaves; and for compensating the persons hitherto entitled to the "services of such slaves," after reciting that it was necessary that provision should be made for the apportionment, amongst the proprietors of the slaves to be manumitted by virtue of the said Act in each of the said colonies respectively, of that part of the said compensation fund which should be so assigned as in the said Act is therein before recited to each of the respective colonies; and reciting that the necessary rules for that purpose could not be properly or safely established, until after full enquiry should have been made into the several circumstances which ought to be taken into consideration in making such apportionment; it was, amongst other things, enacted, that the Commissioners should, and were thereby required to, proceed to draw draw up and frame all such general rules, regard being had to the laws and usages in force in each colony respectively, as to them might seem best adapted in each colony respectively for securing the just and equitable distribution of the said funds amongst or for the benefit of such several persons as aforesaid, and for the protection of such funds, and for the appointment and indemnification of such trustees as aforesaid; and such general rules, when so framed and when agreed upon by the said Commissioners, should by them be subscribed with their respective hands and seals and transmitted to the Lord President of His Majesty's Council, to be by him laid before His Majesty in Council, and so from time to time as often as any further general rules should be so framed and agreed to for the purposes aforesaid, or any of them:

And it was also enacted, that the general rules to be transmitted as aforesaid to the said Lord President should be forthwith published in the London Gazette on three several occasions at least, together with a notice that all persons interested in or affected by any such general rules might, by a time to be in such notice limited, appeal against any such rules to His Majesty in Council; and that it should be lawful for the Lords and others of His Majesty's Privy Council, or for any three or more of them, by any further notice or notices to be for that purpose published in the London Gazette, to enlarge, as to them might seem meet, the time for receiving any such appeals:

And it was further enacted that if, within the time so to be limited for receiving such appeals, any person or persons should prefer any petition of appeal to His Majesty in Council against any such general rule so published as aforesaid in the London Gazette, it should be lawful for His Majesty in Council, or for any Committee of Privy Council, to hear such appeal, and to cause notice thereof to be

be served upon the said Commissioners, who should thereupon undertake the defence of such appeal; and upon hearing any such appeal it should be lawful for His Majesty in Council to confirm and annul, or to rescind and disallow, any such general rule as aforesaid, or thereupon to alter, amend, or vary any such rule in such manner as to His Majesty might seem just, or to remit the same to the said Commissioners for further consideration and revision:

And it was also enacted that, at the expiration of the time limited for receiving such appeals as aforesaid, it should be lawful for His Majesty in Council to confirm and allow, or to rescind and disallow, in the whole or in part, or to amend, alter, or vary any such general rule or rules, though not so appealed against, as to His Majesty might seem just, or to remit such rules to the said Commissioners for further consideration and revision:

And it was further enacted that, when and so often as any such general rule or rules as aforesaid should by His Majesty in Council have been confirmed and allowed, an Order should be made by His Majesty in Council reciting at length any such rule or rules, with any alterations or amendments which might have been made therein as aforesaid; and a copy of every such Order in Council should be duly certified by the Lord President of His Majesty's Council for the time being, to the Lord High Chancellor or Keeper of the Great Seal, or to the Master of the Rolls for the time being, and should be duly enrolled among the records of the High Court of Chancery, and should there remain and be of record:

And it was further enacted that, for ensuring method, regularity, and dispatch in the mode of preferring and proceeding upon such claims, the said Commissioners should and were thereby authorised, by general rules to be framed and published, confirmed, allowed, and enrolled as aforesaid, to prescribe scribe the form and manner of proceeding to be observed by any claimant or claimants preferring any such claims, and to authorise the Assistant Commissioners, so to be appointed as therein before mentioned, in the said several colonies to receive and report upon the same, or any of them, in such manner and form, and under such regulations as to the Commissioners, so to be appointed by His Majesty as aforesaid, should seem meet; and to prescribe the manner, the time or times, the place or places, and the form or forms in which notices of such claims shall be published for general information, or especially communicated to or served upon any person or persons interested therein or affected thereby; and to prescribe the form and manner of proceeding to be observed upon the prosecution of such claims, or in making any opposition to the same; and to make all such regulations as to them might seem best adapted for promoting method, economy, and dispatch in the investigation of such claims, and respecting the evidence to be taken and admitted for or against the same, and respecting the manner and form of adjudicating thereupon, and otherwise however respecting the method, form, and manner of proceeding to be observed, either by them, the said Assistant Commissioners, or by the parties to any proceedings before them, their agents, or witnesses; and which rules should from time to time be liable to be amended, altered, varied, or renewed as occasion might require, in such manner as is therein before directed:

And whereas, in pursuance of the said Act of Parliament, His Majesty, by a Commission under the Great Seal, bearing date the seventh day of October in the fourth year of His Majesty's reign, did constitute Charles Christopher Pepys, James Lewis, John George Shaw Lefevre, Samuel Duckworth, Thomas Amyott, Hastings Elwin, and Henry Frederick Stephenson, Esqrs. to be Commissioners of Arbitration for the purposes in the said Act mentioned.

And whereas, in pursuance of the said Act, the said Commissioners did draw up and frame such general rules as therein mentioned for the apportionment of the compensation money therein mentioned amongst the persons seized of, or entitled to, or having, any mortgage, charge, incumbrance, judgment, or lien upon, or any claim to, or right or interest in, any slave or slaves so to be manumitted, as in the said Act is mentioned, at the time of such their manumission:

And whereas, in pursuance of the said Act, the said Commissioners did also frame such general rules as in the said Act are mentioned, prescribing the form and manner of proceeding to be observed by any claimant or claimants preferring any such claims as are therein mentioned:

And whereas the said general rules when so framed, being subscribed with the respective hands and seals of certain of the said Commissioners, were by them on the first day of April last transmitted to the Lord President of His Majesty's Council to be by him laid before His Majesty in Council:

And whereas the said rules so transmitted as aforesaid to the Lord President have been published in the manner and form in the said Act in that behalf required, together with a notice that all persons interested in or affected by any such general rules might, within six months from the date of such notice, appeal against any such rules to His Majesty in Council:

And whereas such notice bore date the seventeenth day of April one thousand eight hundred and thirty-four, and the said term of six months expired on the seventeenth day of October one thousand eight hundred and thirty-four:

And

And whereas by a further notice, dated the seventh day of July one thousand eight hundred and thirty-four, and published as by the said Act is in that behalf required, three of the Lords of His Majesty's Privy Council did, in so far as related to the colonies of the Cape of Good Hope and Mauritius, enlarge the time for receiving appeals against certain of the said general rules to the period of nine months from the date of the said notice of the seventeenth day of April one thousand eight hundred and thirty-four, but no appeal, except as hereinafter mentioned, hath been preferred against any of the said general rules:

And whereas the several parties hereinafter mentioned did, within the time limited for that purpose by the said notice of the seventeenth day of April one thousand eight hundred and thirty-four, prefer their respective appeals to His Majesty in Council against certain of the before mentioned rules:

And whereas His Majesty was pleased by His Order in Council of the twenty-ninth day of October one thousand eight hundred and thirty-four, to refer the said last mentioned appeals unto a Committee of the Lords of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, who have made a report thereupon to His Majesty in Council, dated the fourteenth day of February instant, in the words following, videlicet:

"Your Majesty having been pleased, by your Order in Council of the twenty-ninth day of October one thousand eight hundred and thirty-four, to refer unto this Committee the humble petition and appeal of William Burge, Esq. of Lincoln's-inn, Barrister at law and Agent for the island of Jamaica, appointed by an Act of the Governor, Council and Assembly of that island, passed in the fourth year of the reign of your present Majesty, setting forth that by the Act of the Imperial Parliament for the Abolition of Slavery throughout the British colonies, for promoting the industry of the manumitted slaves and for compensating the persons hitherto entitled to the services of such slaves, the sum of twenty millions pounds sterling was granted by Parliament as a compensation to the persons entitled to the services of the slaves thereby manumitted, for the loss of such services, provided the Legislatures of the said several colonies should pass such Acts as your Majesty, with the advice of your Majesty's Privy Council, should declare to be adequate and satisfactory for giving effect to the said Act of Abolition in such colonies by such further and supplementary enactments as therein mentioned; that an Act has been passed by the Governor, Council and Assembly of the said island of Jamaica, entitled "An Act for the Abolition of Slavery in this island, in consideration of compensation and for promoting the industry of the manumitted slaves, and to declare the fifty-second George the Third, cap. 155, in force in this island;" which your Majesty, with the advice of your Privy Council, has been pleased to declare adequate and satisfactory for giving effect to the said Act of Abolition in the island of Jamaica by such further and supplementary enactments as therein mentioned; that your Majesty, in pursuance of the power given by the said Act of the Imperial Parliament, has appointed Commissioners for enquiring into and deciding upon the claims to compensation; that the petitioner is the agent in Great Britain for the island of Jamaica, being duly appointed by an Act of the Governor Council and Assembly of that island, passed in the fourth year of your present Majesty, to solicit the passing of such laws and to transact such other public matters as shall from time to time be committed to his care for the good of the island; that amongst the general rules for the government of the Commissioners, drawn up and framed under the forty-seventh section of the said Act of the Imperial Parliament, the petitioner objects to the fourth and sixth; that by the fourth rule it is required, ' that in cases in which any such compensation moneys, or any interest therein, shall belong to, or be vested in, any married woman, infant, lunatic, or person of insane or unsound mind, or person beyond the seas, or labouring under any other legal or natural disability or incapacity, for the protection of whose rights and interests it may be necessary to make provision, and in all other cases in which it may appear to be necessary for protecting any estates or interests and securing the due application of the compensation monies to be awarded in respect thereof, the Commissioners shall direct the appointment of trustees to be nominated on behalf of the parties interested and to be approved by the Commissioners, and shall cause the necessary deeds to be prepared for declaring the rights and interests of the parties, and the trusts and limitations in pursuance thereof, together with all necessary provisions for the indemnity of the trustees, and shall direct the compensation moneys to be invested in the public funds, in the names of such trustees, for the benefit of the parties entitled thereto, in pursuance of such trusts and according to such respective rights and interests ; and the petitioner objects to the said fourth rule :

Because the appointment of trustees by the Commissioners can never be free from risk to the parties interested, and the execution of a trust-deed would cause unnecessary expence, and which expence must be repeated as often as a new trustee becomes necessary, whereas a more secure, and at the same time a less expensive, mode would be to invest such monies in the name of the Accountant-General of the Court of Chancery or the Court of Exchequer, or in the name of the Receiver-General of the island of Jamaica, and make the payment by him be subject to the order of the said Court of Chancery or Court of Exchequer, or Court of Chancery in the said island ;' that by the sixth rule it is required ' that the ap-apportionment of the compensation moneys amongst the persons seized of, or entitled to, or having any mortgage, charge, incumbrance, judgment, or lien upon, or any claim to, or right or interest in, any slave or slaves to be manumitted by the said Act at the time of such their manumission shall be made according to the priority which such mortgage, charge, incumbrance, judgment or lien, claim, right, or interests may respectively have in or upon such slave or slaves according to the laws and usages in force in the particular colony in which such slave or slaves may be registered or settled:

And the petitioner objects to the said sixth rule because no provision is made for the owner or second incumbrancer, while the whole compensation is to be given to the mortgagee or prior incumbrancer, and that the compensation granted by way of indemnity to all persons interested in slave property operates only as an indemnity to one class of persons, whereas it never was or could be intended that one person interested should receive the whole compensation and thus be exempted from any loss, whilst another person, interested in the same slaves, should receive no part of the compensation and thus sustain the whole loss, and yet such is the obvious effect of the sixth rule; because it is wholly inconsistent with the second general rule which precedes it, and which, in accordance with the intention of Parliament, provides that the compensation money should be deemed to be of the same nature and impressed with the same character as the slaves in respect of whom such money should be allotted; whereas the effect of the sixth rule is to give the mortgagee or incumbrancer an advantage which he did not enjoy before, while the owner will be in a worse condition than he was before, because in any judicial sale the land and slaves would have been sold together, and, being sold together, would each produce a higher price than could be obtained

if each were sold separately; by this rule the mortgagee or prior incumbrancer will receive the compensation money for the slaves, while the land will be left in its deteriorated state to the owner:

Because it leaves the mortgagor without any means to pay the wages and other contingencies for the cultivation of his estate, for it would not be in his power to borrow money on the security of the land alone; and lastly because the mortgagor or owner under the Act is obliged to provide for the maintenance and support of the aged and infirm apprentices, without at the same time receiving any part of the compensation money to enable him to defray that expence:

And the petitioner further objects to these general rules, because no provision has been made by the Commissioners in any of the said rules for adjusting the respective interests of annuitants and owners of land and slaves charged with annuities, payable out of the rents and profits of lands and slaves; it would be manifestly unjust, and contrary to the nature of the charge, that the whole compensation money should be set apart for the annuitant, for then he would be in a better situation, and the owner of the land in a worse situation, than they were respectively before the passing of the Act; for the annuitant could never have interfered with the possession of the land or slaves, so long as his annuity was paid, and the owner if it became in arrear would have had the services of the slaves wherewith to produce the rents and profits by which it was discharged.

Because no provision is made to exempt the compensation money from those charges to which it will be subject from its being made payable in England, whenever it forms part of the succession to a person who has died domiciled in the said colony; that under the said fifty-fifth clause of the said Abolition Act, the said Commissioners have drawn up and framed several rules prescribing the man-manner of proceeding to be observed by claimants under the said Act upon the prosecution of their claims, and in making opposition to the same :

That the thirteenth of such rules gives a power to the Assistant Commissioners to adjudicate upon claims with the consent of all parties, otherwise by the preceding rules all contested claims are to be decided in London by the Commissioners there; and the petitioner objects to this mode of proceeding, because in many cases it will be impossible to obtain such consent on account of the legal or natural disability of some of the parties, because the power of transferring the investigation to England will be used by some persons, in the hope of extorting terms from their adversary who may be unwilling or unable to incur that expence, and because persons residing in England, and who must, before the passing of this measure, have prosecuted or defended their claims in the colony, will not consent to renounce the advantage which is given of prosecuting or defending them in this country ; because it is a departure from that established principle in every system of jurisprudence, that a suitor must resort to the forum of the defendant, or in the case of property having locality to the place where it is situate, in order to assert his title to it ; and because it is an infringement on the right of the subject to deprive him of the jurisdiction to which, by the law of the land, he is entitled to resort for the protection of his property, and the proper tribunal for such investigation would be before a jury of Jamaica ; and the petitioner submits that there ought to be a power reserved to the Commissioners of extending the term for preferring claims in the colonies and of receiving claims, notwithstanding the term for preferring them may have expired, whenever a proper case for such extension or reception shall a ise ; that power also ought to be reserved to the Commissioners of directing an issue for the trial by jury of the island, of questions

of fact; and the petitioner lastly submits that in the return of the number of slaves in the island of Jamaica, and in the estimate of their value which the said Commissioners have required to be made, a very considerable expence must be incurred, whereas that expence could be saved, and the return more speedily and properly made, if the compensation money applicable to the island were to be distributed according to the number of negroes in the island, per capita; and the petitioner therefore appeals against the rules of the Commissioners thereinbefore stated, and humbly prays that your Majesty will please to cause to be amended and altered the said rules as to your great wisdom shall seem meet:"

And your Majesty having been furthur pleased, by your said Order in Council of the twenty-ninth of October one thousand eight hundred and thirty-four, to refer unto this Committee the humble petition and appeal of Charles Anthony Ferdinand Bentinck, of Wilton-crescent, in the county of Middlesex, a Captain and Lieutenant-Colonel in the Coldstream Regiment of Guards, and Henry John William Bentinck, a Captain and Lieutenant-Colonel in the same Regiment of Guards, joint proprietors of a plantation and slaves in the colony of Demerara, setting forth, that the petitioners are seized and possessed of, or entitled to, a certain plantation or estate, situate on the eastern coast of Demerara, in South America, commonly called the "Bonne Intention Estate," together with the negro and other slaves thereon; that the said plantation and slaves were, before they vested in the petitioners, and still are, subject to a mortgage debt of considerable amount, but far less than the value of the said estate before passing of the Act hereinafter referred to; that by the Act of Parliament, made and passed in the third and fourth year of your present Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for the abolition of slavery throughout the British colonies, for promoting the industry of the manumitted slaves, and for compensating the persons hitherto entitled to the services of such slaves," the Commissioners to be appointed under the authority thereof, were required and directed to frame certain general rules; that in obedience to the directions contained in the said Act, under the forty-seventh and fifty-fifth clauses thereof, the Commissioners appointed by your Majesty, under the authority of the said Act, have drawn up and framed certain general rules to be observed in carrying into effect the provisions of the said Act, and which said general rules have since been published in the London Gazette; that amongst the said general rules, so framed under the said forty-seventh clause, are contained the following, " 2. That in respect to all persons who, as owners or creditors, legatees or annuitants, may have any joint or common interest in any slave or slaves, or may be entitled to, or interested in, any slave or slaves, either in possession, remainder, reversion, or expectancy, the compensation monies to be awarded in respect of such slave or slaves shall be deemed to be of the same nature, and impressed with the same character, for all purposes whatsoever, so far as the same can be so taken and applied, as the slave or slaves in respect of whom such monies shall be allotted, and shall be subject to the same rules of distribution, and to the same charges and liabilities, as the same slave or slaves respectively would have been subject to according to the several estates and interests of the parties entitled thereto, and agreeably to the law and usage of the particular colony in which such slave or slaves may be registered or settled;" " 6. That the apportionment of the compensation monies amongst the persons seized of, or entitled to, or having any mortgage, charge, incumbrance, judgment, or lien, upon or a any claims to, or right or interest in, any slave or slaves to be manumitted by the said Act at the time of such

their manumission, shall be made according to the priority which such mortgage, charge, incumbrance, judgment, or lien, claim, right, or interest may respectively have in or upon such slave or slaves, according to the laws and usages in force in the particular colony in which such slave or slaves may be registered or settled;" that under the said two rules the said mortgagee claims to be entitled to receive the whole of the compensation money allotted in respect of the slaves upon the petitioners' estate; that the petitioners conceive they would be aggrieved by the aforesaid rules, if the said mortgagee should establish his claim to the whole of the said compensation money, and submit that the principle, according to justice and equity upon which the rules affecting the interest of proprietors and mortgagees ought to be framed, should be to give a proportionate benefit to both the parties interested in the compensation intended for the loss sustained to the proprietors by the measures of the Legislature in the emancipation of the said slaves; and not that the whole loss and burden of the contemplated loss by the said measures should be thrown upon, and be born by, the proprietor, which it is submitted will be the case if the rules Nos. 2 and 6, hereinbefore set forth, should not be amended in such manner as to allow an equitable division of the said compensation money between the petitioners and the said mortgagee; and the petitioners submit that it never could have been the intention of the Legislature, in emancipating the slaves, to ruin the proprietor, and protect only a creditor from a loss created by his own speculative acts, and not by a loan to the proprietor. The petitioners therefore humbly pray, that your Majesty in Council will be pleased not to confirm and allow, but to alter, amend, or vary the aforesaid rules Nos. 2 and 6, and any other of the said rules which are framed upon the same principle, and give them relief and protection in the premises, so that they may receeive an equitable proportion of the said compensation fund to be allotted in respect of the said slaves, or that your Majesty will remit such rules to the Commissioners for further consideration and revision for that purpose, or that such order and direction may be made and given in the premises as to your Majesty may seem meet."

And your Majesty having been further pleased by your said Order in Council of the twenty-ninth of October one thousand eight hundred and thirty-four, to refer unto this Committee the humble petition and appeal of Henry Iles Woodcock, of the island of Saint Christopher, in the West Indies, Esquire, setting forth that the petitioner is advised that he is a claimant entitled to prefer his claim to the compensation provided by the Act of Parliament, made and passed in the third and fourth year of your present Majesty's reign, cap. 73, intituled "An Act for the abolition of slavery throughout the British colonies, for promoting the industry of the manumitted slaves, and for compensating the persons hitherto entitled to the services of such slaves," under the circumstances thereafter stated; that the petitioner is a Barrister at Law, and was, previous to the passing of the said Act, senior King's Counsel for Tortola and the other Virgin Islands situate in the West Indies, and in that character the public became indebted to him for conducting the law business of the said colony or possession of the Virgin Islands in a large sum of money, and which, together with various public accounts due to individuals which were received in payment by and assigned to the petitioner, on his departure from the island of Tortola, for sale of property there, amounted to the sum of £2526. 16. $4\frac{3}{4}$. current gold and silver money; that the petitioner was induced to accept the assignment or transfer of such accounts, in payment of property he so disposed of in the said island of Tortola, as the greater part of them were for salaries earned earned by and due to the public officers of the said colony or possession of the Virgin Islands, for the payment of which, the faith of the colonial Legislature was pledged by resolutions passed to that effect, and upon which footing the petitioner's account for his professional services for the public was also placed as is thereinafter stated; that at the time when these public accounts were assigned to or received by the petitioner, they, as well as his own account, bore interest; but all public accounts were shortly afterwards called in, and the interest stopped, under an understanding that an Act of the Legislature of the said colony or possession would be passed to raise a tax for the satisfaction of the demands of the public creditors. The Act of the said Legislature alluded to, was eventually passed on the sixth day of June one thousand eight hundred and thirty-two, intituled "Virgin Islands, Tortola.—An Act for raising a sum of money for the exigences of these islands, and to repeal an Act for laying a duty of gunpowder upon certain vessels trading to and from these islands;" and the following is an extract therefrom, forty-seventh clause:—"Whereas, it is requisite that the debt now due by the public of these islands should be ascertained with the greatest accuracy, in order that due provision may be made for the payment thereof, and that the various claims held by different individuals should be consolidated into single negociable instruments; be it therefore enacted, that immediately after the publication of this Act, the treasurer, or his lawful deputy, shall issue advertisements and notices, to be affixed in the most conspicuous places in the road town of Tortola, of the east end thereof, of the west end thereof; of the island of Jois Van Dykes, of the island of Peter's Island, of the island of Spanish Town, and of the island of Anagada, and also procure such advertisements and notices to be inserted in the Saint Christopher newspapers, calling on all person or persons whomwhomsoever who hold public accounts or who have claims on the public of these islands to give in, on or before the first day of August one thousand eight hundred and thirty two, the amount of their several accounts or claims, with interest, calculated on such as bear interest, up to such first day of August one thousand eight hundred and thirty-two, to the treasurer, or his lawful deputy, producing at the same time the public accounts or vouchers on which such claims are founded; and the said treasurer, or his lawful deputy, is hereby directed after such day, and at the first meeting of the Council and Assembly, to present a statement of such claims, the several amount of each, and the name of the claimant or holder thereof, and the Council or Assembly are to examine such statement, and if approved of, they shall, and are hereby authorised, to issue an order signed by the president of the Council and Speaker of the Assembly for the time being, on the public treasury, payable to each claimant or holder and his assigns, or to his, her, or their order, for the amount of his or her consolidated claim, which order shall not bear any interest, and shall be liquidated by an annual dividend thereon.

That the public debts of the said colony or possession were ascertained by a Committee of the Legislature of the said colony or possession appointed for such purpose, and, amongst the claims of other creditors, they considered that of the petitioner, and ascertained the amount to be £2526. 16. $4\frac{3}{4}$. current money.

That the report of the said Committee was adopted, and, amongst other creditors, the petitioner appears on the public ledger of the said colony, in the possession of the Treasurer, to have an admitted demand against the said colony for the above-mentioned sum.

That on the thirty-first day of October one thousand eight hundred and thirty-three, an order was issued to the Treasurer of the said colony or possession, in favour of the petitioner, under the said tax act, for the said sum of £2526. 16. 4¾. current money, and the petitioner has since received on account thereof £98. 5. 3. current money, under the provisions of the said tax act; the following is a copy of the said order and receipt attached:

Virgin Islands, Tortola. } £2526. 16. 4¾. C. G. and S. money.

"To the Treasurer of the said Virgin Islands, or his lawful deputy, under and by virtue of an Act, intituled "An Act for raising a sum of money for the exigencies of these islands, and to repeal an Act, intituled 'An Act for laying a duty on gunpowder upon certain vessels trading to and from the islands.'"

"Pay to Henry Woodcock, Esquire, and his assigns, or to his, her, or their order, the sum of £2526. 16s. 4¾. current gold and silver money, being the amount of sundry accounts against the public of the said Virgin Islands, held by him or them, consolidated by the above Act, clause the forty-seventh, and payable by annual dividend.

Tortola, twenty-first October one thousand eight hundred and thirty-three.

Wm. Rogers Isaacs, President.
Thos. Marsh, Speaker."

"Tortola. Received from George Williams Lewis, Esquire, Treasurer, the sum £98. 5. 3. C. G. and S. money, being the amount of dividend upon consolidated public account up to first October one thousand eight hundred and thirty-three. £98. 5. 3.

H. J. Woodcock,
by his Attorney, G. W. Lewis."

That, after deducting the said sum of £98. 5. 3. from the said debt of £2526. 16. 4¾.. there remains due to the petitioner on the said order the sum of £2428. 11. 1¾. current money.

That the taxes raised for ayment of the public debt debt in the said colony or possession of the Virgin Islands, have hitherto been levied on the slave holders, by making them pay so much for each slave they possess.

That, in consequence of the aforesaid Act of Parliament, the negro and other slaves, being emancipated, will cease to be the subject of taxation.

That, as the taxes of the said colony have hitherto been raised on the slave population, and the debt of the colony thereby charged on that species of property, the petitioner submits that which is substituted for, or put in the place of, the slave, should be considered liable to the payment of the sums heretofore charged or chargeable on the slaves, as far as such sums remain on the first August one thousand eight hundred and thirty-four unsatisfied, from taxes then already raised on the slave, out of which the public debt was to be paid; and the petitioner therefore submits, that the public debt to the petitioner in arrear should now be paid from the compensation to be given for the slave under the aforesaid Act of Parliament.

That the Commissioners are, under the said Act of Parliament, authorised and required to apportion and assign, amongst others, to the said colony or possession of the Virgin Islands, a certain share of the sum of twenty millions of pounds granted by way of compensation, the petitioner humbly submits, that so soon as the share of the said sum payable to the said colony or possession of the Virgin Islands is assigned to that colony or possession, it becomes the property of that colony, and as such should be in the first place applied to the payment of its debts, so far as the slaves emancipated under the said Act, or the slave holders in respect of such slaves, would have been liable thereto.

That the principle humbly contended for, on the part of the petitioner, is, that the private property of each individual in the state is, in proportion to its extent, liable for the public debt, it being the only fund from whence the public creditor can be paid; and that when any part of such property is destroyed, and compensation granted for it, the owner thereof cannot engross the whole and avoid his obligation to bear a part of the public burthen, created in maintaining establishments by which he has been secured in the enjoyment, and protected in the possession, of that very property; and that when any species of private property is annihilated, the security of the public creditor and his chance of payment ceases to exist to the extent of the property destroyed; therefore, in the distribution of the compensation given for such property, the interest of the public creditor therein should be considered, and satisfaction awarded to him upon the same principle as payment would be made to the mortgagee or other claimant.

That, in obedience to the directions contained in the said Act of Parliament, under the forty-seventh clause of the said Act of Parliament, and also under the fifty-fifth clause of the said Act of Parliament, the said Commissioners appointed by your Majesty under the authority of the same Act, have drawn up and framed, under date of the thirty-first day of March one thousand eight hundred and thirty-four, certain general rules to be observed in carrying into effect the provisions of the said Act, and which general rules have since been published in the London Gazette.

That, notwithstanding the provisions of the said Act of Parliament, the petitioner is advised that the rules so made as aforesaid by the said Commissioners, are inapplicable to the petitioner's case, and that should the same, as they now stand, be confirmed and allowed by your Majesty in Council, the petitioner will be deprived of all benefit and advantage under the said Act of Parliament, or in the compensation thereby provided, inasmuch as there is no rule under which the said Commissioners could entertain the petitioner's said claim.

That the petitioner, therefore, conceives he is aggrieved by the aforesaid rules of the said Commissioners, and he is apprehensive he will be left without remedy, unless your Majesty in Council shall afford him relief:

And the petitioner, therefore, humbly prays, that your Majesty in Council will be pleased to alter, amend, or vary the aforesaid rules of the said Commissioners, by framing a new rule sufficiently ample to comprehend the petitioner's claim, and give him relief and protection in the premises, or by remitting the said rules to the said Commissioners for further consideration and revision for that purpose. or that such other order and direction may be made and given in the premises as to your Majesty may seem meet:"

The Lords of the Committee, in obedience to your Majesty's said order of reference, have taken the said petitions and appeals into consideration, and caused notice thereof to be served upon the said Commissioners; and having also heard counsel, as well on behalf of the several appellants as on behalf of the said Commissioners in defence of the said appeals, their Lordships do agree humbly to report, as their opinion, to your Majesty, that it may be advisable for your Majesty to confirm and allow, subject to certain alterations and amendments therein, such of the general rules, made as aforesaid, as are the subject of or affected by the said appeals; and their Lordships do agree further humbly to report to your Majesty, that the last-mentioned rules, with such alterations and amendments as aforesaid, are as follows, viz.

GE-

GENERAL RULES under the 47th and 55th Clauses of the Act, 3d and 4th Will. 4th, c. 73.

1. That the party or parties who shall be in possession as owner or owners of any slave or slaves, and shall appear as such by the latest returns made in the office of the Registrar of Slaves under the Registry Acts in the respective colonies, shall be deemed primâ facie the rightful owner or owners thereof respectively, and primâ facie entitled to the compensation monies to be awarded in respect thereof.

2. That in respect to all persons who, as owners or creditors, legatees or annuitants, may have any joint or common interest in any slave or slaves, or may be entitled to, or interested in, any slave or slaves, either in possession, remainder, reversion, or expectancy, the compensation monies to be awarded in respect of such slave or slaves shall be deemed to be of the same nature, and impressed with the same character for all purposes whatsoever, so far as the same can be so taken and applied, as the slave or slaves in respect of whom such monies shall be allotted, and shall be subject to the same rules of distribution, and to the same charges and liabilities, as the same slave or slaves respectively would have been subject to according to the several estates and interests of the parties entitled thereto, and agreeably to the law and usages of the particular colony in which such slave or slaves may be registered or settled.

3. That the compensation monies to be awarded in respect of any slave or slaves, subject to any trusts or powers whatsoever, shall be subject to the same trusts or powers in all respects as the same slave or slaves were subject to.

4. That in cases in which any such compensation monies, or any interest therein, shall belong to or be vested in any married woman, infant, lunatic, or person of insane or unsound mind, or person beyond the seas, or labouring under any other legal or natural disability or incapacity, for the protection of whose rights and interests it may be necessary to make provision, and in all other cases in which it may appear to be necessary for protecting any estates or interests, and securing the due application of the compensation monies to be awarded in respect thereof, the Commissioners shall appoint Trustees, having regard to the wishes of the parties interested, and shall by their award declare the rights and interests of the parties and the trusts and limitations in pursuance thereof, together with all necessary provisions for the indemnity of the Trustees; and shall direct the compensation monies to be invested in the public funds in the names of such Trustees, for the benefit of the parties entitled thereto, in pursuance of such trusts and according to such respective rights and interests.

5. That in case of the death of any person entitled to such compensation monies who may die intestate before the award of such compensation, the succession to such monies shall be the same as the succession to the interest in the slave or slaves in respect of whom the compensation shall be allotted, according to the law of the particular colony in which such slave or slaves were registered or settled.

6. That the apportionment of the compensation monies amongst the persons seized of or entitled to, or having any mortgage, charge, incumbrance, judgment, or lien upon, or any claim to, or right or interest in, any slave or slaves to be manumitted by the said Act, at the time of such their manumission, shall be made according to the priority which such mortgage, charge, incumbrance, judgment or lien, claim, right, or interest, may respectively have in or upon such slave or slaves according to the laws and usages in force in the particular colony in which such slave or slaves may be registered or settled; but shall be subject to all the equities to which such mortgage, charge, incumbrance, judgment or lien, claim, right or interest in such slave or slaves may respectively be liable.

7. That in all cases in which any slave or slaves, or the compensation in respect thereof, shall be the subject of any suit in any court of law or equity in the United Kingdom, and to the Commissioners it shall seem meet, the compensation awarded to be paid in respect of such slave or slaves, shall, under the direction of the said court, be paid into the said court, to be subject to the orders, directions, and decrees of the court in which such suit may be depending; and in cases in which such slave or slaves shall be the subject of any suit in any court of law or equity in the colony of Jamaica, and to the Commissioners it shall seem meet, the compensation in respect of such slave or slaves shall be paid, under the direction of the said court, to the Receiver-General of the said island, to be subject to the decrees, orders, and directions of the said court in which the suit may be depending.

And in all cases in which such slave or slaves, or the compensation in respect thereof, shall be the subject of any suit in any court of law or equity in any other colony than Jamaica, and to the said Commissioners it shall seem meet, the compensation monies awarded in respect of such slave or slaves shall, under the direction of the Court of Exchequer at Westminster, to be made upon petition to be preferred in a summary way, be paid into the Bank of England, in the name and with the privity of the Accountant-General of the Court of Exchequer, to be placed to his account there, exparte the persons named in the award and therein specified as the plaintiffs and defendants in the said suit, pursuant to the method prescribed by an Act, made in the first year of the reign of King George

George the Fourth, intituled, "An Act for the better securing the monies and effects paid into the Court of Exchequer at Westminster, on account of the suitors of the said Court, and for other purposes;" and the general orders of the said court, and without fee or reward; and the said monies when so paid in, shall, under such direction as aforesaid, be invested by the said Accountant-General in his name, exparte the said account, in the purchase of £3. per Centum Consolidated Bank Annuities, and the dividends thereon, and also the dividends on all future investments, as they arise and become due, shall be invested by the said Accountant-General in his name, in like manner, so that the same may accumulate for the benefit of the parties entitled thereto; and the said compensation monies so invested as aforesaid, and the said accumulations, shall be paid and transferred, under such direction as aforesaid, to the person or persons to whom the same shall be directed to be paid or transferred by the decree, order, or judgment of the court in the colony, made in the said suit there depending, or any court of appeal; and a copy of such decree, order, or judgment of the court in the colony, or court of appeal, signed by the proper officer of such court, shall be sufficient evidence of such decree, order, or judgment to the said Court of Exchequer.

RULES for the Conduct of the Proceedings under the said Commission, in so far as relates to all the Colonies mentioned and enumerated in the said Act, except the Cape of Good Hope and Mauritius.

That, with the consent of the several parties, the Assistant Commissioners in their respective colonies be authorised, according to the several rules hereinbefore stated, to ascertain and report the amount of compensation appearing to be due to any of the litigant par-parties in cases of contested claims, and transmit forthwith lists or copies of their proceedings and reports to the Commissioners.

That the Commissioners shall, upon such proceedings and reports being received from the Assistant-Commissioners, proceed to the adjudication and award of the compensation which shall appear to be due according to such lists, reports, and proceedings.

And whereas His Majesty hath this day taken into consideration the aforesaid rules, the subject of or affected by the said appeals, together with the recommendation with respect to the same contained in the said report:

Now, therefore, in pursuance of the said Act of Parliament, and in execution of the powers in His Majesty in that behalf vested, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, doth order, and it is hereby ordered, that, subject to the alterations and amendments recommended in the said report, the said general rules so as aforesaid the subject of or affected by the said appeals, be, and the same are, hereby confirmed and allowed:

And in further pursuance of the said Act of Parliament the said last mentioned rules, with such alterations and amendments as aforesaid, are recited at length in this present Order:

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the third and fourth year of His Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to regulate the trade of the British "possessions abroad," after reciting that, by the Law of Navigation, foreign ships are permitted to import into any of the British possessions abroad, from the countries to which they belong, goods the produce of those countries, and to export goods from such possessions to be carried to any foreign country whatever; and that it is expedient that such permission should be subject to certain conditions, it is, amongst other things, enacted, that the privileges, by the Law of Navigation granted to foreign ships, shall be limited to the ships of those countries which, having colonial possessions, shall grant the like privileges of trading with those possessions to British ships, or which, not having colonial possessions, shall place the commerce and navigation of this country, and of its possessions abroad, upon the footing of the most favoured nation, unless His Majesty, by His Order in Council, shall in any case deem it expedient to grant the whole or any of such privileges to the ships of any foreign country, although the conditions aforesaid shall not in all respects be fulfilled by such foreign country; and it is thereby provided, that no foreign country shall be deemed to have fulfilled the before-mentioned conditions, or to be entitled to the privileges aforesaid, unless and until His Majesty shall, by some Order or Orders to be by him made by the advice of His Privy Council, have declared that such foreign country hath so fulfilled the said conditions, and is entitled to the said privileges:

And whereas it hath been made to appear to the satisfaction of His Majesty in Council, that the conditions aforesaid have been fulfilled by the Government of Denmark;

Now, therefore, in pursuance and exercise of the powers in His Majesty in Council by the said recited Act of Parliament in that behalf vested, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, doth declare, and it is hereby declared accordingly, that the Danish Government hath fulfilled the before-mentioned conditions, and that Danish ships may import into any of the British possessions abroad, from the country to which they belong, goods the produce of that country, and may export goods from such possessions, to be carried to any foreign country whatever:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and the Right Honourable the Earl of Aberdeen, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, having the Department of the Colonies, are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly as to them may respectively appertain.

Wm. L. Bathurst.

At the Court at St. James's, the 1st day of April 1835,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the third and fourth year of His Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to regulate the trade of the British "possessions abroad," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that no goods shall be imported into, nor shall any goods, except the produce of fisheries in British ships, be exported from, any of the British possessions in America by sea, from or to any place other than the United Kingdom, or some other of such possessions, excepting to or from the several ports in such possessions called free ports, enumerated or described in the table in the said Act contained; and it is thereby further enacted, that if any goods shall be imported into any port or place in any of the said possessions contrary to the said Act, such goods shall be forfeited; and it is thereby provided, that if His Majesty shall deem it expedient to extend the provisions of the said Act to any port or ports not enumerated in the said table, it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by Order in Council, to extend the provisions of the said Act to such port or ports; and that from and after the day mentioned in such Order in Council, all the privileges and advantages of the said Act, and all the provisions, penalties, and forfeitures therein contained, subject, nevertheless, to the limitations and restrictions thereinafter provided, shall extend, and be deemed and construed to extend, to any such port or ports respectively, as fully as if the same had been inserted and enumerated in the said table at the time of passing the said Act: and whereas it is by the

the said Act further enacted, that the several ports therein in that behalf mentioned shall be free warehousing ports for all the purposes of the said Act; and it is thereby further enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by Order in Council, from time to time to appoint any port in His Majesty's possessions in America, to be a free warehousing port for all or any of the purposes of the said Act; and that every such port, so appointed by His Majesty, shall be, for all the purposes expressed in such Order, a free warehousing port under the said Act, as if appointed by the same:

And whereas His Majesty doth deem it expedient to extend the before-mentioned provisions of the said Act, respecting such free ports and such free warehousing ports as aforesaid, to the port of Welch Pool, in the island of Campo Bello, in the province of New Brunswick;

Now, therefore, under and by virtue of the said Act of Parliament, and in exercise of the powers thereby in His Majesty in Council in that behalf vested, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, doth order, and it is hereby ordered accordingly, that the provisions of the said Act, as far as the same relate to the free ports and the free warehousing ports respectively therein mentioned, shall be, and the same are hereby, extended to Welch Pool, in the island of Campo Bello, in the province of New Brunswick; and that, from and after the first day of June next, all the privileges and advantages by the said Act conferred upon the free ports therein mentioned, and all the provisions, penalties, and forfeitures in the said Act contained, subject to the limitations and restrictions therein provided, shall extend to the said port of Welch Pool; and that the said port shall, from and after the time aforesaid, for all the purposes of the said Act, be a free warehousing port under the said Act as if appointed by the same:

And,

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

Wm. L. Bathurst.

At the Court at St. James's, the 1st day of April 1835,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament, passed in the sixth year of the reign of His late Majesty George the Fourth, intituled "An Act to "regulate the trade of the British possessions "abroad," it was, amongst other things, enacted, that it should be lawful for His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, by any Order or Orders in Council to be issued from time to time, to give such directions and make such regulations, touching the trade and commerce to and from any British possessions on or near the Continent of Europe, or within the Mediterranean Sea, or in Africa, or within the limits of the East India Company's charter, excepting the possessions of the said Company, as to His Majesty in Council should appear most expedient and salutary; and whereas, in pursuance of the said Act of Parliament, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, did, on the twenty-second February one thousand eight hundred and thirty-two, make a certain Order in Council for regulating the trade of the colony of the Cape of Good Hope, by which Order the importation of tea into the said colony, except from the United Kingdom, or from some other British possession in America, or by the East India Company or with their licence, was pro-prohibited; and whereas the said recited Act of Parliament hath been subsequently repealed:

And whereas by a certain other Act of Parliament, passed in the third and fourth year of His present Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to regulate "the trade of the British possessions abroad," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, by any Order or Orders in Council to be issued from time to time, to give such directions and make such regulations, touching the trade and commerce to and from the British possessions on or near the Continent of Europe, or within the Mediterranean Sea, or in Africa, or within the limits of the East India Company's charter, excepting the possessions of the said Company, as to His Majesty in Council shall appear most expedient and salutary, any thing in that Act to the contrary notwithstanding:

And whereas doubts had arisen whether, in consequence of the repeal of several of the laws relating to the Customs, divers Orders of His Majesty in Council, issued in pursuance of such laws, had not ceased to be binding and in force, and, amongst others, the before in part recited Order in Council of twenty-second February one thousand eight hundred and thirty-two:

And whereas by a certain Act, passed in the fourth and fifth years of His present Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the laws relating to the Customs," it is declared to be expedient that such doubts as aforesaid should be removed; and it is thereby enacted and declared, that all Orders made by His Majesty, or by His late Majesty King George the Fourth, with the advice of their respective Privy Councils, in pursuance of any of the Acts so repealed as aforesaid, so far as the same, or any of them, were or was in force at or immediately before the time when the Act of the third and fourth year of His Majesty's reign, by which the same were so repealed, came into operation, did, notwithstanding that Act, continue in full force, as though that Act had not been made; and should thereafter continue in full force, unless and until the same, or any of them, should be, either in whole or in part, rescinded or revoked by His Majesty, with the advice of His Privy Council:

And whereas by the effect of the said several recited Acts of Parliament and of the said Order in Council, so much of the said Order as relates to the importation of tea into the colony of the Cape of Good Hope, remains in force:

Now, therefore, His Majesty doth, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, and in pursuance and exercise of the powers in His Majesty in Council in that behalf vested by the several Acts of Parliament, so made as aforesaid in the third and fourth year, and in the fourth and fifth year of His Majesty's reign, order, and it is hereby ordered, that so much of the said recited Order in Council of the twenty-second day of February one thousand eight hundred and thirty-two, as prohibits the importation of tea into the colony of the Cape of Good Hope, except from the United Kingdom, or from some other British possession in America, unless by the East India Company or with their licence, shall be, and the same is hereby, rescinded and revoked:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

Wm. L. Bathurst.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by a certain Act of Parliament, passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of His present Majesty's reign, intituled " An Act for the abolition of slavery " throughout the British colonies; for promoting the " industry of the manumitted slaves; and for com- " pensating the persons hitherto entitled to the " services of such slaves," after reciting that it was necessary that provision should be made for the apportionment, amongst the proprietors of the slaves to be manumitted by virtue of the said Act in each of the said colonies respectively, of that part of the said compensation fund which should be so assigned as in the said Act is therein before recited to each of the respective colonies; and reciting that the necessary rules for that purpose could not be properly or safely established, until after full enquiry should have been made into the several circumstances which ought to be taken into consideration in making such apportionment; it was, amongst other things, enacted, that the Commissioners should, and were thereby required to, proceed to

And it was also enacted, that the general rules to be transmitted as aforesaid to the said Lord President should be forthwith published in the London Gazette on three several occasions at least, together with a notice that all persons interested in or affected by any such general rules might, by a time to be in such notice limited, appeal against any such rules to His Majesty in Council; and that it should be lawful for the Lords and others of His Majesty's Privy Council, or for any three or more of them, by any further notice or notices to be for that purpose published in the London Gazette, to enlarge, as to them might seem meet, the time for receiving any such appeals:

And it was further enacted, that if, within the time so to be limited for receiving such appeals, any person or persons should prefer any petition of appeal to His Majesty in Council against any such general rule so published as aforesaid in the London Gazette, it should be lawful for His Majesty in Council, or for any Committee of Privy Council, to hear such appeal, and to cause notice thereof to

be served upon the said Commissioners, who should thereupon undertake the defence of such appeal; and upon hearing any such appeal it should be lawful for His Majesty in Council to confirm and annul, or to rescind and disallow, any such general rule as aforesaid, or thereupon to alter, amend, or vary any such rule in such manner as to His Majesty might seem just, or to remit the same to the said Commissioners for further consideration and revision:

And it was also enacted, that, at the expiration of the time limited for receiving such appeals as aforesaid, it should be lawful for His Majesty in Council to confirm and allow, or to rescind and disallow, in the whole or in part, or to amend, alter, or vary any such general rule or rules, though not so appealed against, as to His Majesty might seem just, or to remit such rules to the said Commissioners for further consideration and revision:

And it was also enacted, that, when and so often as any such general rule or rules as aforesaid should by His Majesty in Council have been confirmed and allowed, an Order should be made by His Majesty in Council reciting at length any such rule or rules, with any alterations or amendments which might have been made therein as aforesaid; and a copy of every such Order in Council should be duly certified by the Lord President of His Majesty's Council for the time being, to the Lord High Chancellor or Keeper of the Great Seal, or to the Master of the Rolls for the time being, and should be duly enrolled among the records of the High Court of Chancery, and should there remain and be of record:

And it was further enacted, that, for ensuring method, regularity, and dispatch in the mode of preferring and proceeding upon such claims, the said Commissioners should and were thereby authorised, by general rules to be framed and published, confirmed, allowed, and enrolled as aforesaid, to prescribe the form and manner of proceeding to be observed by any claimant or claimants preferring any such claims, and to authorise the Assistant Commissioners, so to be appointed as therein before mentioned, in the said several colonies to receive and report upon the same, or any of them, in such manner and form, and under such regulations as to the Commissioners, so to be appointed by His Majesty as aforesaid, should seem meet; and to prescribe the manner, the time or times, the place or places, and the form or forms in which notices of such claims shall be published for general information, or especially communicated to or served upon any person or persons interested therein or affected thereby; and to prescribe the form and manner of proceeding to be observed upon the prosecution of such claims, or in making any opposition to the same; and to make all such regulations as to them may seem best adapted for promoting method, economy, and dispatch in the investigation of such facts, and respecting the evidence to be taken and admitted for or against the same, and respecting the manner and form of adjudicating thereupon, and otherwise however respecting the method, form, and manner of proceeding to be observed by them, the said Assistant Commissioners, or by the parties to any proceedings before them, their agents, or witnesses; and which rules should from time to time be liable to be amended, altered, varied, or renewed as occasion might require, in such manner as is therein before directed:

And whereas the said last mentioned general rules when so framed, being subscribed with the respective hands and seals of the said Commissioners, were by them, on the sixteenth day of May last, transmitted to the Lord President of His Majesty's Council, to be by him laid before His Majesty in Council:

And whereas the said last-mentioned general rules, so transmitted as aforesaid to the said Lord President, have been published in the manner and form in the said Act in that behalf required, together with a notice, that all persons interested in or affected by any such general rules might, within nine months from the date of such notice, appeal against any such rules to His Majesty in Council:

And whereas such notice bore date on the tenth day day of June one thousand eight hundred and thirty-four, and the said term of nine months expired on the tenth day of Mareh last, and no appeals have been preferred to His Majesty in Council against any of the said last-mentioned general rules:

Esquire Bedell; William Hopkins, Esq. Esquire Bedell; the Reverend Joseph Romilly, Registrary of the University; which Address His Majesty was graciously pleased to receive on the Throne:

To

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Chancellor, Masters, and Scholars of the University of Cambridge.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful subjects, the Chancellor, Masters, and Scholars of the University of Cambridge, humbly approach your Majesty's presence, with the assurance of our fervent and unalterable attachment to your Majesty's Royal Person and Government.

In seasons of political excitement, we do not ordinarily step forward to tender, at the foot of the Throne, any renewed assurance of our loyalty and devotion; but, at this particular juncture, we conceive ourselves especially and imperatively called upon, to give expression to the sentiments and feelings which the present aspect of public affairs has excited in our breasts.

With unfeigned sorrow and alarm, do we witness the efforts, which are now being made, to establish the principle, "that the revenues of the Protestant Church may be appropriated to other than ecclesiastical and Protestant purposes." The bare recognition of this principle, would be, in our deliberate judgment, most injurious to the best interests of religion; and, in its practical application, it must tend to the subversion of that glorious constitution, in Church and State, under which the British nation has enjoyed, for a long period, an increasing and unexampled prosperity. Most anxiously, therefore, do we deprecate the adoption of such a principle.

Filled with these apprehensions for the safety of our truly Apostolic Church, we look earnestly, under Divine Providence, to your Majesty for protection; and encouraged by your Majesty's gracious disposition, and declared purpose, to maintain her integrity, tegrity, we venture in all humility to assure your Majesty of our cordial and zealous co-operation in any measures, which, to your Majesty's wisdom, may appear best calculated to avert the impending danger

To which Address His Majesty was pleased to return the following most gracious Answer:

"I receive with satisfaction, and rely with confidence upon the expression of your fervent and unalterable attachment to my Person and Government.

"Upon the great question to which your refer, I shall be anxious to receive the advice of my responsible Ministers, and of the great Council of the nation assembled in Parliament.

"I trust that the measures which they will recommend will be calculated to secure the safety of the Church and to avert any impending danger."

The Deputation was most graciously received, and had the honour to kiss His Majesty's hand.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by a Statute, made at the Parliament holden in the third and fourth years of the reign of His present Majesty, it was declared and enacted, amongst other things, that "His Majesty, "by and with the advice of His Most Honourable "Privy Council, should have power from time to "time to order and direct at what place or places, in "any county in England or Wales, the assizes and "sessions under the commissions of gaol delivery, "and other commissions for the dispatch of civil and "criminal business, should be holden:"

And whereas several petitions have been presented to the King's Most Excellent Majesty, praying for the holding of the assizes for the county of Wilts at Devizes alternately with Salisbury; and whereas it will be beneficial to a considerable portion of the inhabitants of the said county, if the assizes shall be so holden; and whereas it is certified that proper courts and lodgings for His Majesty's judges have been already prepared at Devizes:

It is, therefore, ordered by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice of His Most

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by a Statute, made at the Parliament holden in the third and fourth years of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An "Act for the appointment of convenient places "for the holding of assizes in England and Wales," it was declared and enacted, that "His Majesty, by "and with the advice of His Most Honourable "Privy Council, should have power from time to "time to order and direct at what place or places, in "any county in England or Wales, the assizes and "sessions under the commissions of gaol delivery, "and other commissions for the dispatch of civil and "criminal business, should be holden; and to order "and direct such assizes and sessions for the dis-"patch of criminal and civil business to be holden "at more than one place in the same county on the "same circuit; and to order and direct the assizes "and sessions under such commissions for the dis-"patch of criminal business to be holden for the "whole county at one place, and for the dispatch of "civil business at one or more place or places in "such

WILLIAM R.

WHEREAS by a Statute, made at the Parliament holden in the third and fourth years of our reign, intituled "An Act for the appointment of convenient places for the holding of assizes in England and Wales," it was declared and enacted, that We, by and with the advice of Our Most Honourable Privy Council, should have power from time to time to order and direct at what place or places, in any county in England or Wales, the assizes and sessions under the commissions of gaol delivery, and other commissions for the dispatch of civil and criminal business, should be holden; and to order and direct such assizes and sessions for the dispatch of criminal and civil business to be holden at more than one place in the same county on the same circuit; and to order and direct the assizes and sessions under such commissions for the dispatch of criminal business to be holden for the whole county at one place; and for the dispatch of civil business at one or more place or places in such county on the same circuit; and further to order and direct any special commissions of oyer and terminer and gaol delivery to be holden at any one or more places in any such county:

And it was further enacted, that in case We, by and with the advice of Our Most Honourable Privy Council, should think fit to order and direct that the assizes, or any such special commissions, should be holden at more than one place in any one county, it should be lawful for Us, by and with the advice aforesaid, to divide any such county for the purposes of the said Act, and to make rules and regulations touching the venue in all cases, civil and criminal, then pending, or thereafter to be pending, and to be tried within any division of such county so to be made as aforesaid; and touching the liability and attendance of jurors, whether grand jurors, special jurors, or common jurors, at the assizes and sessions as aforesaid, or at any sessions under any special commissions to be holden within any such division; and touching the use of any house of correction or prison as a common gaol, and the government and keeping thereof; and touching the alterations of any commissions, writs, precepts, or other proceedings whatsoever for carrying into effect the purposes of the said Act; and touching any other matters that might be requisite for carrying into effect the purposes poses of the said Act; and all such rules and regulations should be of the like force and effect as if the same had been made by the authority of Parliament, and should be notified in the London Gazette, or in such other manner as We, by and with the advice of Our Most Honourable Privy Council, should think fit to direct:

And it was further enacted, that We should have power from time to time, for the purpose of carrying the said Act into effect, to order and direct that the Court of Common Pleas at Lancaster should be holden at any one or more places in the county palatine of Lancaster, as we should think fit, and to divide the said county palatine for the purpose of the trial of civil causes and the transaction of other civil business in the said court; and to make the like rules and regulations touching the venue in civil cases to be tried within any division of the said county, and the liability and attendance of jurors, whether special or common, at the court to he held within any such division; and touching the alterations of commissions, writs, precepts, or other proceedings for carrying into effect the purposes of the said Act; and touching any other matter that might be requisite for carrying into effect the purposes of the said Act; and all such rules and regulations should be of the like force and effect as if the same had been made by the authority of Parliament, and should be notified in the London Gazette, or in such other manner as We should think fit:

And whereas we have been graciously pleased, by and with the advice of Our Most Honourable Privy Council, by an Order in Council, bearing date on the twenty-fourth day of June instant, to order and direct that the assizes and sessions held under commissions of gaol delivery, and other commissions for the dispatch of civil and criminal business, for the county palatine of Lancaster, heretofore holden at Lancaster, shall hereafter be holden on the same circuit both at Lancaster and Liverpool, in the said county palatine :

And have also ordered the said county to be divided, for the purpose of carrying the said recited Act and that Order into effect, into two divisions, which are respectively to be called the Northern Division and the Southern Division ; and that such Northern Division shall include the whole of the several hundreds of Lonsdale, Amounderness, Leyland, and Blackburn ; and that such Southern Division shall include the whole of the respective hundreds of Salford and West Derby :

And whereas divers other regulations are made by the said Order ; but it is expedient, in order to carry the same into complete effect, and to accomplish the purposes of the said Act, so far as relates to the civil business to be transacted at the assizes to be so held at Lancaster and Liverpool as aforesaid, to make further regulations touching the Court of Common Pleas for the said county palatine of Lancaster :

We do, therefore, order and direct, that the Court of Common Pleas for the said county, heretofore held at Lancaster, shall be holden both at Lancaster and Liverpool, at the respective times fixed for the holding of the said assizes and sessions ; and that the said county palatine be divided, for the purpose of the trial of civil actions, and the transaction of other civil business in the said court, into the two divisions aforesaid :

And We do further order and direct, that every declaration hereafter to be filed or delivered in any action in the said Court of Common Pleas, shall have in the margin, besides the ordinary venue, the words "Northern Division," or "Southern Division," but no other alteration from the ordinary form shall be necessary, and issues arising in such actions, if tried at the assizes, shall accordingly be tried at the assizes held at Lancaster and Liverpool respectively :

Pro-

Provided nevertheless, and We do further order and direct, that in all cases of civil actions in the said Court of Common Pleas, in which the venue is by law local, the issues therein shall be tried at Lancaster, in cases where the cause of action shall have arisen in the northern division; and at Liverpool where the cause of action shall have arisen in the southern division, in like manner as if the two divisions were two separate counties, and the declarations in such actions shall have in the margin, in addition to the ordinary venue, the words "Northern Division," or "Southern Division," as the case may require, but no other alteration from the ordinary form shall be necessary:

Nevertheless, it shall be lawful for the said Court of Common Pleas, or any judge thereof, to order such issues to be tried at the assizes held in the division in which the cause of action did not arise, if they or he shall think fit; and also to order the words in the margin to be amended in all other cases in actions in the said Court of Common Pleas, so as to cause the trial to take place at the assizes held in another division:

And We do further order and direct, that in all cases of issues already joined, or hereafter joined, in the said Court of Common Pleas, in which the venue is laid in the county of Lancaster, without any words in the margin specifying the division of the county, such issues shall be tried at Lancaster, unless the said court, or a judge thereof, shall otherwise order, by directing the proper words to be inserted in the margin, or otherwise, as he shall think fit:

And We do further order and direct, that the prothonotary, or his deputy, shall attend at the assizes both at Lancaster and Liverpool:

And We do further order and direct, that no alteration shall be necessary in the commission or commissions appointing the chief justice, or other justices of the Court of Common Pleas, and of all manner of pleas within the said county, and that the jury process, on issues joined in the said Court of Common Pleas, and subpœnas, do name the assizes either at Liverpool or Lancaster, as the case may be, at which attendance is to be given; and writs of subpœna to be hereafter issued for the next assizes, may be tested on any day after the date hereof; and for any subsequent assizes, may be tested in manner heretofore used and accustomed:

And We do further order and direct, that all and every other the said regulations already made by Us, by and with the advice of Our Privy Council, so far as they relate to or affect the said Court of Common Pleas, or the jurisdiction of the judges thereof, or the trial of issues therein, or the Court of Pleas of the Crown for the said county, be carried into effect:

A letter, of which the following is a translation, has been received by S. G. Marshall, Esq. His Majesty's Consul at Calais, from the French Commissary of Marine at that port:

SIR, Calais, June 24, 1835.

YOU are aware that the gun-brig, La Lilloise, commanded by Lieutenant De Blosseville, was despatched, in the spring of 1833. to the coasts of Iceland and Greenland; and that, since the month of August of that year, no tidings have been heard of that vessel.

In 1834, the Bordelaise was sent in search of the Lilloise, though without success; and a corvette, La Recherche, lately sailed from Cherbourg for the same purpose.

The Moniteur of June 20 contains a report, presented to the King, on this subject by the Minister of the Marine, and His Majesty, as you will have seen, has determined, 1stly. That a sum of one hundred thousand francs shall shall be paid to any French or foreign mariners, who shall bring back to their country, either all or part of the commissioned officers and crew of the Lilloise.

2dly. That a pecuniary recompense, proportioned to the importance of the service performed, shall be allowed to those who shall first be able to communicate a certain account of them, or procure to France the restitution of any of the papers and effects which have belonged to that expedition.

His Excellency has directed me to make this resolution known as generally as possible, and I think I cannot do better than inform you of it, in order that you may employ such means as are in your power to acquaint with it the masters of English vessels engaged in the whale and cod fishery in the North Sea.

Accept, Sir, the assurance of my distinguished regard. The Commissary of the Marine,

LORD PONSONBY, His Majesty's Ambassador Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary at the Sublime Ottoman Porte, has transmitted to Viscount Palmerston, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, an official note, of which the following is a translation, which has been addressed to Lord Ponsonby by his Excellency the Reis Effendi:

(Translation.)

Official Note transmitted by his Excellency the Reis Effendi to his Excellency Lord Ponsonby, dated July 14, 1835.

Certain inconsiderate persons having committed acts of disobedience and rebellion in the neighbourhood of Scutari, in Albania, it has therefore become ne-necessary to proceed to the punishment of these ill disposed persons for their misconduct; and there is no Government which is not anxious for the suppression of disturbances and revolt.

The Sublime Porte has decided upon the measures necessary for the punishment of the rebels, and has detached a sufficient number of ships of war of the Imperial navy, which have proceeded to blockade Boyana, Durazzo, Lesche, Morton, and Cavaia, places situated within a short distance of Scutari, and of which they may be considered the ports.

A suitable period has been fixed of thirty-one days, to date from the 31st of the present month of Rebuil-Evvel (namely, from the 17th July 1835), beyond which no merchant ship or other vessel shall be permitted to resort to the ports above mentioned; and in order to prevent all complaints which might arise from vessels repairing to the places in question, no vessel, with or without cargo, and of whatever nature the cargo may be, will be permitted to touch at those parts of the coast of Albania before mentioned, after the expiration of the period above stated, and until it shall please Divine Providence to put an end to the disturbances.

It being necessary to notify this blockade which we are about to establish, to the representatives of all friendly Powers residing at Constantinople, in order that they may make it known to the merchants and subjects of their respective nations with the least possible delay, and that the necessary orders may be issued, that no merchant vessel or ship of war be permitted to repair to the ports of which the blockade has been decreed; we, therefore, for that purpose, make known the same, by the present official note, to his Excellency the Ambassador of Great Britain.

FROM THE

LONDON GAZETTE of AUGUST 14, 1835.

At the Court at St. James's, the 12th day of August 1835,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by a certain Act of Parliament, passed in the third and fourth year of His Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for the abo- "lition of slavery throughout the British colo- "nies; for promoting the industry of the manu- "mitted slaves; and for compensating the persons "hitherto entitled to the services of such slaves;" it is amongst other things recited, that it is necessary that various rules and regulations should be framed and established for ascertaining, with reference to each apprenticed labourer within the said colonies respectively, whether he or she belongs to the class of attached prædial apprenticed labourers, or to the class of unattached apprenticed labourers, or to the class of non-prædial apprenticed labourers, and for determining the manner and form in which, and the solemnities with which, the voluntary discharge of any apprenticed labourer from such his or her apprenticeship may be effected, and for prescribing the form and manner in which, and the solemnities with which, the purchase by any such apprenticed labourer of his or her discharge from such apprenticeship, without, or in opposition, if necessary, to the consent of the person or persons entitled to his or her services shall be effected; and how the necessary appraisement of the future value of such services shall be made; and how, and to whom, the amount of such appraisement shall in each case be paid and applied; and in what manner and form, and by whom, the discharge from any such apprenticeship shall thereupon be given, executed, and recorded: and that it is also necessary, for the preservation of peace throughout the said colonies, that proper regulations should be framed and established for the maintenance of order and good discipline amongst the said apprenticed labourers; and for ensuring the punctual discharge of the services due by them to their respective employers; and for the prevention and punishment of indolence, or the neglect or improper performance of work by any such apprenticed labourer; and for enforcing the due performance by any such apprenticed labourer of any contract into which he or she may voluntarily enter, for any hired service during the time in which he or she may not be bound to labour for his or her employer; and for the prevention and punishment of insolence and insubordination, on the part of any such apprenticed labourer, towards their employers; and for the prevention or punishment of vagrancy, or of any conduct on the part of any such apprenticed labourers injuring, or tending to the injury, of the property of any such employer; and for the suppression and punishment of any riot or combined resistance to the laws on the part of any such apprenticed labourers; and for preventing the escape of any such apprenticed labourers, during their term of apprenticeship, from the colonies to which they may respectively belong: and that it will also be necessary, for the protection of such apprenticed labourers as aforesaid, that various regulations should be framed and established in the said respective colonies, for securing punctuality ality and method in the supply to them of such food, clothing, lodging, medicines, medical attendance, and such other maintenance and allowances as they are, by the said Act, declared entitled to receive; and for regulating the amount and quality of all such articles in cases where the laws at present existing in any such colony may not, in the case of slaves, have made any regulation, or any adequate regulation, for that purpose; and that it is also necessary that proper rules should be established for the prevention and punishment of any frauds which might be practised, or of any omissions or neglects which might occur, respecting the quantity or the quality of the supplies so to be furnished, or respecting the periods for the delivery of the same; and that is necessary, in those cases in which the food of any such prædial apprenticed labourers as aforesaid may, either wholly or in part, be raised by themselves, by the cultivation of ground to be set apart and allotted for that purpose, that proper regulations should be made and established as to the extent of such grounds, and as to the distance at which such grounds may be so allotted from the ordinary place of abode of such prædial apprenticed labourers, and respecting the deductions to be made for the cultivation of such grounds from the annual time during which such prædial apprenticed labourers are hereinbefore declared liable to labour; and that it may also be necessary, by such regulations as aforesaid, to secure to the said prædial apprenticed labourers the enjoyment, for their own benefit, of that portion of their time during which they are not hereby required to labour in the service of their respective employers, and for securing exactness in the computation of the time, during which such pædial apprenticed labourers are hereby required to labour in the service of such their respective employers; and that it is also necessary that provision should be made for preventing the im-imposition of task work on any such apprenticed labourer, without his or her free consent to undertake the same; but that it may be necessary, by such regulations in certain cases, to require and provide for the acquiescence of the minority of the prædial apprenticed labourers attached to any plantation or estate, in the distribution and apportionment amongst the whole body of such labourers of any task work, which the majority of such body shall be willing and desirous collectively to undertake; and that it is also necessary that regulations should be made respecting any voluntary contracts, into which any apprenticed labourers may enter with their respective employers, or with any other person, for hired service for any future period, and for limiting the greatest period of time to which such voluntary contract may extend, and for enforcing the punctual and effectual performance of such voluntary contracts on the part both of such apprenticed labourers, and of the person or persons engaging for their employment and hire; and that it is also necessary that regulations should be made for the prevention or punishment of any cruelty, injustice, or other wrong or injury which may be done to, or inflicted upon, any such apprenticed labourers by the persons entitled to their services; and that it is also necessary that proper regulations should be made respecting the manner and form in which such indentures of apprenticeship as aforesaid, shall be made on behalf of such children as aforesaid, and respecting the registering and preservation of all such indentures; and that it is also necessary that provision should be made for ensuring promptitude and despatch, and for preventing all unnecessary expence in the discharge by the Justices of the Peace, holding such special commissions as in the said Act mentioned of the jurisdiction and authorities thereby committed to them, and for enabling such Justices to decide in a summary way, such questions as may be brought before them in that capacity, and for the division of the said respective colonies in districts, for the purposes of such jurisdiction, and for the frequent and punctual visitation by such Justices of the Peace of the apprenticed labourers within such their respective districts; and that it is also necessary that regulations should be made for indemnifying and protecting such Justices of the Peace in the upright execution and discharge of their duties; and that such regulations as aforesaid could not, without great inconvenience, be made except by the respective Governors, Councils, and Assemblies, or other local legislatures of the said respective colonies, or by His Majesty, with the advice of His Privy Council, in reference to those colonies to which the legislative authority of His Majesty in Council extends:

It is therefore enacted and declared, in and by the said Act, that nothing therein contained extends, or shall be construed to extend, to prevent the enactment by the respective Governors, Councils, and Assemblies, or by such other local legislatures as aforesaid, or by His Majesty, with the advice of His Privy Council, of any such Acts of General Assembly or Ordinances, or Orders in Council, as may be requisite for making and establishing such several rules and regulations as aforesaid, or any of them, or for carrying the same, or any of them, into full and complete effect: provided, nevertheless, and it is thereby enacted, that it shall not be lawful for any such Governor, Council, and Assembly, or for any such local legislature, or for His Majesty in Council, by any such Acts of Assembly, Ordinance, or Orders in Council as aforesaid, to make or establish any enactment, regulation, provision, rule, or order which shall be in anywise repugnant or contradictory to the said recited Act, or any part thereof, but that every such enactment, regulation, lation, provision, rule, or order shall be, and is thereby declared to be, absolutely null and void and of no effect:

And whereas it is by the said Act further enacted, that all laws made by His Majesty for the government of His Majesty's subjects in Honduras shall, for the purposes of the said Act, be as valid and effectual as any laws made by His Majesty in Council for the government of any colonies subject to the legislative authority of His Majesty in Council are or can be: and whereas, in pursuance of the said Act, His Majesty did, on the fifth day of June one thousand eight hundred and thirty-four, by the advice of His Privy Council, make a certain Order in Council for carrying the said Act into effect within the island of Trinidad: and whereas by a certain other Order of His Majesty in Council, also dated on the fifth day of June one thousand eight hundred and thirty-four, after reciting that it was expedient that the regulations for the government of apprenticed labourers should, throughout His Majesty's possessions to which the said Act applies, as nearly as might be, and having regard to the variety of local circumstances in such several possessions, be of one uniform tenour; and that the state and circumstances of society in the said settlement of Honduras were, in many respects, peculiar, and differed essentially from the state and circumstances of society as existing in the said island of Trinidad, and other His Majesty's colonies in the West Indies; and that, by reason of the variety and minuteness of such distinctions, it was necessary that provision should be made for the adaptation of the said Order in Council to the case of Honduras by some local authority, it was, in pursuance of the said recited Act of Parliament, and for carrying the same into effect within the said settlements of Honduras, ordered by His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, that the said Order in Council

for the said island of Trinidad should, save as hereinafter mentioned, extend to, and be in force within, His Majesty's said settlement, at Honduras upon, from, and after the first day of August one thousand eight hundred and thirty-four: provided, nevertheless, and it was further ordered, that it should be lawful for the Superintendent for the time being of the said settlements, by any proclamation or proclamations to be by him from time to time for that purpose issued, to suspend any part or parts of the said Order which he should consider inapplicapble to the state and circumstances of society in the said settlements, and by any such proclamation or proclamations, to adopt the said Order in Council, or any part or parts thereof, to the state and circumstances of society in the said settlements: and it was thereby provided, that no such proclamation should in any respect be repugnant to, or inconsistent with, any thing in the said Act of Parliament contained: and it was further ordered, that the said Superintendent should transmit to His Majesty, or to one of His Principal Secretaries of State, copies of any such proclamations, for His Majesty's approbation or disallowance; and it was thereby also provided, that no such proclamation should, by the terms thereof, be made to operate and take effect, or to be binding upon His Majesty's subjects, within the said settlements, until the same should first have been approved by His Majesty, save only in cases in which it should appear to the said Superintendent, for the time being, that the delay incident to obtaining His Majesty's approbation of any such proclamation would subject His Majesty's subjects in the said settlements to serious inconvenience, in which cases any such proclamation might, by the terms thereof, be made to operate and take effect and to be binding upon His Majesty's subjects aforesaid, either from the day of the date thereof or from any such other time as should be therein for the purpose appointed, until His Majesty's pleasure should be known:

And whereas the said Superintendent of the British settlements at Honduras, in pursuance of the powers in him in that behalf vested by the last recited Order in Council, hath made and established certain regulations for adapting to the state and circumstances of those settlements, the provisions of the Order made by His Majesty in Council for giving effect to the said Act for the abolition of slavery within the colony of Trinidad:

And whereas His Majesty, having this day taken into consideration the regulations so made as aforesaid by the said Superintendent, hath been pleased to approve thereof: now it is hereby ordered by His Majesty that the said regulations shall be, and the same are hereby, confirmed and allowed:

And whereas it is by the said Act of Parliament, amongst other things, enacted, that no part of the sum of twenty millions sterling shall be applied or be applicable to the purposes in the said Act mentioned, for the benefit of any person then entitled to the services of any slave in any of the colonies in the said Act mentioned, unless an Order shall have been first made by His Majesty, with the advice of His Privy Council declaring that adequate and satisfactory provision hath been made by law in such colony, for giving effect to the said Act, by such further and supplementary enactments as aforesaid, nor unless a copy of such Order in Council, duly certified by one of the Clerks in Ordinary of His Majesty's Privy Council shall, by the Lord President of the Council, have been transmitted to the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, or to the Lord High Treasurer for the time being: now, therefore, in further pursuance and exercise of the powers in His Majesty in Council, by the said recited Act in that behalf vested, His Majesty, with the advice of His Privy Council, doth declare, and it is hereby declared, that adequate and satisfactory provision hath been made by law in the said settlements at Honduras, for giving effect to the said recited Act of Parliament, by such further and supplementary enactments as therein are mentioned:

And the Lord President of the Council, and the Right Honourable the Lord Glenelg, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

C. C. Greville.

THE NEW HOUSES OF PARLIAMENT.

Notice to Architects intending to furnish Designs.

Office of Woods, &c. August 18, 1835.

THE Commissioners of His Majesty's Woods, &c. hereby inform such Architects, as intend to furnish designs for the new Houses of Parliament, of the following particulars, arising out of questions which have been addressed to the Commissioners from various quarters, since the notice which appeared in the London Gazettes of the 21st, 24th, and 28th of July last:

I. As to the present temporary Houses of Parliament and the new temporary House of Lords about to be erected.

A new temporary House of Lords is to be erected on the plot marked A. on a plan hereinafter referred to, and the present temporary house is thereupon to be vacated, it will then be required that one or both of the temporary Houses of Parliament and Offices be retained for use, until the new permanent Houses and Offices can be so far completed for occupation, as to admit of those temporary buildings being vacated.

II. As to the ground coloured yellow on the lithograph plan.

It is not intended that Architects should be prevented availing themselves of the ground coloured yellow, should they deem it advisable so to do.

III. As to the employment of the ground next to New Palace-yard, eastwards of the part coloured yellow.

The

The arrangement of this ground is discretional with the Architects, as to building upon it or not.

IV. As to the space coloured brown on the lithograph plan.

If the Architect should require to carry out his new buildings over any portion of the space coloured brown, southward of Parliament-place, he may consider the passage so called, and the landing at the water edge to which it leads, as removeable to the southward of them, but the occupation of any portion of that space is to be considered optional.

V. As to the three perspective views.

It is compulsory upon Architects to send in three views.

Enquiries have also been addressed to the Commissioners of Woods, &c. as to the following points, relating to the interior arrangements of the old House of Lords:

VI. As to the space below the bar.

VII. As to the space occupied by the Throne.

VIII. As to the number of rows of benches on each side of the House, and the space between the front rows.

The plan herein before referred to will contain the arrangements of the ground floors, both of the old House of Lords and old House of Commons.

A copy of this plan will be delivered at this Office, free of expense, to any person who has been supplied with the lithograph plan of the sites of the Houses of Parliament, &c. on the applicant giving satisfactory proof that such lithograph plan has been so supplied to him, on and after the 24th of August instant, between the hours of two and four.

FROM THE

LONDON GAZETTE of SEPTEMBER 11, 1835.

Lord Chamberlain's-Office, September 11, 1835.

NOTICE is hereby given, that His Majesty's Levees are discontinued until further orders.

St. James's-Palace, September 10, 1835.

THIS day His Majesty proceeded in state from St. James's-Palace to the House of Peers, where he arrived about two o'clock; and was received, on alighting from his state coach, by the Lord President of the Council, the Lord Privy Seal, the Deputy Lord Great Chamberlain, the Lord Viscount Malbourne, Clarenceux King of Arms, in the absence of Garter, and the Yeoman Usher of the Black Rod, and proceeded to the robing-room in the customary manner.

His Majesty was there robed, and having put on the imperial crown, the procession moved into the House in the usual order;—the sword of state was borne by the Lord Viscount Melbourne, and the cap of maintenance by the Earl of Shaftesbury, in the absence of the Marquess of Winchester.

man Usher of the Black Rod, was sent with a message from His Majesty to the House of Commons, commanding their attendance in the House of Peers. The Commons being come thither accordingly, His Majesty was pleased to deliver the following most gracious Speech to both Houses of Parliament:

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

I FIND with great satisfaction, that the state of the public business enables Me to relieve you from further attendance, and from the pressure of those duties which you have performed with so much zeal and assiduity.

I receive from all Foreign Powers satisfactory assurances of their desire to maintain with Me the most freindly understanding; and I look forward with confidence to the preservation of the general peace, which has been and will be the object of My constant solicitude.

I lament that the civil contest in the northern provinces of Spain has not yet been brought to a termination; but, taking a deep interest in the welfare of the Spanish monarchy, I shall continue to direct to that quarter My most anxious attention, in concert with the three Powers with whom I concluded the treaty of quadruple alliance; and I have, in furtherance of the objects of that treaty, exercised the power vested in Me by the Legislature, and have granted permission to My subjects to engage in the service of the Queen of Spain.

I have concluded with Denmark, Sardinia, and Sweden fresh conventions, calculated to prevent the traffic in African slaves: I hope soon to receive the ratification of a similar treaty, which has been signed with Spain. I am engaged in negociations with other Powers in Europe and in South America for the same purpose, and I trust that ere long the united efforts of all civilized nations will suppress and extinguish this traffic.

I perceive, with entire approbation, that you have directed your attention to the regulation of Municipal Corporations in England and Wales, and I have cheerfully given My assent to the Bill which you have passed for that purpose. I cordially concur in this important measure, which is calculated to allay discontent, to promote peace and union, and to procure for those communities the advantages of responsible government.

I greatly rejoice that the internal condition of Ireland has been such as to have permitted you to substitute, for the nccessary severity of a law which has been suffered to expire, enactments of a milder character. No part of My duty is more grateful to My feelings than the mitigation of a penal statute, in any case in which it can be effected consistently with the maintenance of order and tranquillity.

Gentlemen of the House of Commons,

I thank you for the readiness with which you have voted the supplies. You have provided, not only for the expences of the year and for the interest upon the large sum awarded to the owners of slaves in My colonial possessions, but also for several unexpected and peculiar claims upon the justice and liberality of the nation. It is most gratifying to observe, that not only have these demands been met without additional taxation, but that you have made some further progress in reducing the burthens of My people.

I am enabled to congratulate you, that the terms upon which the loan for the compensation to the proprietors of slaves has been obtained afford conclusive evidence of the flourishing state of public credit, and of that general confidence which is the result of a determination to fulfil the national engagegagements, and to maintain inviolable the public faith.

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

I know that I may securely rely upon your loyalty and patriotism, and I feel confident, that in returning to your respective counties, and in resuming those functions which you discharge with so much advantage to the community you will recommend to all classes of your countrymen obedience to the law, attachment to the Constitution, and a spirit of temperate amendment, which, under Divine Providence, are the surest means of preserving the tranquillity and increasing the prosperity which this Country enjoys.

Then the Lord Speaker, by His Majesty's command, said:

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

It is His Majesty's royal will and pleasure, that this Parliament be prorogued to Tuesday the tenth day of November next, to be then here holden; and this Parliament is accordingly prorogued to Tuesday the tenth day of November next.

At the Court at St. James's, the 9th day of September 1835,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by a certain Act of Parliament, passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of His present Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for the abolition of slavery "throughout the British colonies; for promoting "the industry of the manumitted slaves; and for "compensating the persons hitherto entitled to the "services of such slaves;" after reciting that it was necessary that provision should be made for the apportionment, amongst the proprietors of the slaves to be manumitted by virtue of the said Act in each of the said colonies respectively, of that part of the said compensation fund which should be so assigned as in the said Act is therein before recited to each of the respective colonies; and reciting that the necessary rules for that purpose could not be properly or safely established, until after full enquiry should have been made into the several circumstances which ought to be taken into consideration in making such apportionment; it was, amongst other things, enacted, that the Commissioners should, and were thereby required to, proceed to draw up and frame all such general rules, regard being had to the laws and usages in force in each colony respectively, as to them might seem best adapted in each colony respectively for securing the just and equitable distribution of the said funds amongst or for the benefit of such several persons as aforesaid, and for the protection of such funds, and for the appointment and indemnification of such trustees as aforesaid; and such general rules, when so framed and when agreed upon by the said Commissioners, should by them be subscribed with their respective hands and seals, and transmitted to the Lord President of His Majesty's Council, to be by him laid before His Majesty in Council, and so from time to time as often as any further general rules should be so framed and agreed to for the purposes aforesaid, or any of them :

And it was also enacted, that the general rules to be transmitted as aforesaid to the said Lord President should be forthwith published in the London Gazette, on three several occasions at least, together with a notice that all persons interested in, or affected by, any such general rules might, by a time to be in such notice limited, appeal against any such rules to His Majesty in Council ; and that it should be lawful for the Lords and others of His Majesty's Privy Council, or for any three or more of them, by any further notice or notices to be for that purpose published in the London Gazette, to enlarge, as to them might seem meet, the time for receiving any such appeals :

And it was also enacted, that, at the expiration of the time limited for receiving such appeals as aforesaid, it should be lawful for His Majesty in Council to confirm and allow, or to rescind and disallow, in the whole or in part, or to amend, alter, or vary any such general rule or rules, though not so appealed against, as to His Majesty might seem just, or to remit such rules to the said Commissioners for further consideration and revision :

And it was further enacted, that, when and so often as any such general rule or rules as aforesaid should, by His Majesty in Council, have been confirmed and allowed, an Order should be made by His Majesty in Council reciting at length any such rule or rules, with any alterations or amendments which might have been therein made as aforesaid ; and a copy of every such Order in Council should be

be duly certified by the Lord President of His Majesty's Council, for the time being, to the Lord High Chancellor or Keeper of the Great Seal, or to the Master of the Rolls for the time being, and should be duly enrolled among the records of the High Court of Chancery, and should there remain and be of record:

And whereas, in pursuance of the said Act of Parliament, His Majesty, by a Commission under the Great Seal, bearing date the twenty-fourth day of January in the fifth year of His Majesty's reign, did constitute John Bonham Carter, James Lewis, Robert William Hay, James Stephen, Samuel Duckworth, John George Shaw Lefevre Thomas Amyot, Hastings Elwin, and Henry Frederick Stephenson, Esqrs. to be Commissioners of Arbitration for the purposes in the said Act mentioned:

And whereas, in pursuance of the said Act, the said Commissioners did frame certain general rules, which were transmitted and published, and were afterwards duly confirmed and allowed, in the manner prescribed by the said Act:

And whereas, in pursuance of the said Act, the said Commissioners did also frame a further general rule, for the purpose of providing for the payment of a certain amount of the compensation monies, which may be adjudged to belong to, or vested in, persons labouring under certain disabilities; which further general rule, being subscribed with the hands and with the seals of the said Commissioners, were by them, on the twenty-seventh day of May last, transmitted to the Lord President of His Majesty's Council to be by him laid before His Majesty in Council:

And whereas the said further general rule, so transmitted as aforesaid to the Lord President, has been published in manner and form in the said Act in that behalf required, together with a notice, that all persons interested in or affected by such further general rule might, within three months from the date of such notice, appeal therefrom to His Majesty in Council:

And whereas such notice bore date the twenty-ninth day of May one thousand eight hundred and thirty-five, and the said term of three months expired on the twenty-ninth day of August last, and no appeal has been preferred against the said further general rule:

And whereas His Majesty hath this day taken into consideration the propriety of confirming and allowing such further general rule:

Now, therefore, in pursuance of the said Act of Parliament, and in exercise of the powers thereby in His Majesty in that behalf vested, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, doth order, and it is hereby ordered, that the said further general rule, so made as aforesaid, shall be, and the same is hereby, confirmed and allowed:
